CASY acquired the assets of Indiana Communities for Drug-Free Youth, Inc effective July 1, 2013. As a result, youth services are provided in addition to early education services. These youth programs are listed as new program accomplishments starting this fiscal year.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

The CASY Child & Adult Care Food Program is a program designed to help children enrolled in child care facilities to receive the nutritious meals their growing bodies need while keeping costs down for the child care provider or facility. The CASY CACFP does this by reimbursing the child care provider or facility based on the number of meals served to enrolled children and providing ongoing nutrition education to child care providers. This in turn aids the parents because not only are they assured their children are receiving nutritious meals and snacks, their child care costs are kept down as well.

The CACFP is a federally funded program. It is administered at the federal level by the Food and Nutrition Service (FNS), an agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA). The Indiana State Department of Education administers CACFP at the state level. CASY is a Child & Adult Care Food Program Sponsor contracted with the Indiana State Department of Education. The CASY Child & Adult Care Food Program serves the counties in West Central Indiana.

We believe that prevention is about fostering healthy, strong communities to build healthy, strong kids.

Local people solve local problems best.

People support what they help create.

Science matters.

*These prevention values are from the Southwest Center for the Application of Prevention Technologies, and the Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services; the Johnson County Community Board adopted these values because they echo a change in "mind set" that solutions to local problems are best determined by local community members who are invested in the long-term health of their communities.

SUMMARY OF KEY FINDINGS & RECOMMENDATIONS

The following are priority risk factors that were determined to be impacting Johnson County; therefore placed in the Strategic Plan.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Vigo County's vision is to build professionally-supported, dynamic relationships which unite children with committed volunteers, transforming their lives and enriching families and communities. Our work is as elementary as putting a friend in a child's life and as essential as putting hope into a child's future.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Vigo County's mission is to make a positive difference in the lives of children and youth, primarily through a professionally-supported one-to-one relationship with a caring adult. The goal is to assist them in achieving their highest potential as they grow to become confident, competent, and caring individuals, by providing committed volunteers, local and national leadership, and standards of excellence.

Chances And Service for Youth received a grant from the United Way of the Wabash Valley in 2011 which has made it possible to offer an out-of-school program for area youth and families at the Booker T. Washington Community Center.

Teen Court is a program targeted at first-time offenders and designed as a type of deferred program for the children meeting certain eligibility requirements.

In order to be eligible for the program the teen must admit to a misdemeanor or lower charge. Many of the Teen Court participants will be referred from the Juvenile Probation Office. The court session meets out a constructive sentence before a real judge through a process utilizing teenage attorneys and jurors, giving a true definition of "jury of your peers." Constructive sentences will include community service hours, jury terms, workshops, and essays. Each case brought before the jury will be different, as will the sentences. Once the sentence is complete, there is no evidence of the offense in the teen's record, effectively giving the teenager a second chance to be a model citizen. The idea is to target those who, with some encouragement, have the best chance of staying out of future trouble.

Safe Kids works to promote changes in attitudes, behaviors, laws and the environment to prevent injury to children.

Child Passenger Safety Technicians train parents and caregivers to select, install, and adjust car seats and booster seats. Also, to help parents and caregivers determine when a child is the right size to move from a child restraint to an adult safety belt.

Safe Kids - Vigo County is able to provide assistance obtaining car seats to individuals that meet the programs qualifications. We are also able to install and adjust car seats and booster sets for parents that already have their child safety restraint.
