Publishing - Russian Ministries' publishing efforts are designed to stimulate voices from within the former Soviet Union to cultivate a Next Generation of published Christian writers who can speak directly into the cultures and peoples of the former Soviet Union. Each year, Russian Ministries oversees the publication and distribution of 10-12 titles that are used for Next Generation leadership development through School Without Walls seminars, leadership training conferences, pastoral training seminars and conferences, forums and roundtable discussions. Each title represents the contemporary thought of young, national Christians as they present solutions to the challenges facing the evangelical church and society in the former Soviet Union. In addition, because we recognize that Scripture has the power to change lives, Russian Ministries prints and distributes thousands of copies of specialized versions of Scripture throughout the countries of the former Soviet Union, including New Testaments for youth, New Testaments for Muslims, children's picture Bibles and New Testaments, and others. We estimate that approximately 100,000 people are reached annually through the publication/distribution of these Scripture versions.

Relief Work/GIK - The distribution of humanitarian aid (GIK) is an important component of our efforts to minister holistically to the Next Generation in the former Soviet Union/Eurasia. Each year thousands of people are reached through the distribution of Gifts of Hope gift packs (containing toys, candy, clothing items, and a children's Bible or other Christian literature) placed by School Without Walls students at Christmas, Easter and other strategic times of the year. Also, clothing, shoes, furniture, medical equipment, bedding, wheelchairs, food and other items, are distributed either directly by School Without Walls students or through local churches and other Christian organizations. Relief work enhances our evangelism efforts and often leads to entire families attending church and accepting Christ.

School Without Walls (SWW) is Russian Ministries' nonformal, centerpiece Christian leadership training program designed to train, equip and mobilize the Next Generation in the former Soviet Union/Eurasia to transform their nations for Christ. Through School Without Walls, young people have the opportunity to learn about the Bible and other biblically based topics while putting their knowledge into practice through various ministry outreaches in their communities. Because of the local church's involvement with School Without Walls, church growth has also been positively affected. During the 2012-13 school year, the School Without Walls program trained a total of 2,972 students in 12 countries and 99 locations of the former Soviet Union/Eurasia. We estimate that more than 700,000 people were impacted for Christ through this program in 2012-2013.
