Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
X	2	ASRT is an exempt organization for federal income tax purposes under section 501 c6 of the internal revenue code and, therefore, has no provision for federal income taxes except as noted below for unrelated business income. The Internal Revenue Service has classified ASRT as an organization that is not a private foundation. Activities unrelated to ASRT's exempt purpose are taxable. The Internal Revenue Service considers net income received from advertising, sale of non-education related materials, affinity service fee relationships and the sale of mailing lists as unrelated business taxable income. During fiscal years 2013 and 2012, income taxes were paid to the State of New Mexico. No federal income tax was paid due to unused federal operating loss carryforwards of approximately 2,233,289 that expire in various amount in years from 2018 through 2027. ASRT has adopted accounting principles generally accepted in the United State of America as they relate to uncertain tax positions. Any interest and penalties recognized associated with a tax position are classified as current the ASRT's financial statements. Currently, the 2011, 2012 and 2013 tax years are open and subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service and New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department. However, ASRT is not currently under audit nor has the ASRT been contacted by any of these jurisdictions. Management believes that the activities of the ASRT are within their tax-exempt purpose with the exceptions noted herein and that there are no uncertain tax positions.

		Form 990 Part VI Section B Line 15 Data on compensation for the CEO and other C-level positions at organizations similar to ASRT is gathered from multiple sources. These sources include CEO Update Executive Compensation in Associations survey, the American National Research Company National Compensation Study and the Association Compensation and Benefits Study produced by ASAE The Center for Association Leadership. This data is used as a starting point for an extensive review of 990 information on 14 similar health care organizations. Comparisons used are staff size and organizational budget. A report on the information along with the data is provided to the board of directors for their review. The board of directors takes direct compensation action on the CEO. The CEO is responsible for direct compensation decisions for the other C-level positions and all other employees. Formal documentation of the discussions and decisions of the board of directors is maintained. The chairman of the board communicates the decision on CEO compensation changes to the COO who generates compensation change documentation for their signature.
