Part I Summary

Activities & Governance	1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities To establish and operate continuing care retirement communities in accordance with the principles of the Religious Society of Friends. These principles require that our communities provide, at a reasonable cost, an environment which fosters independence and a sense of wholeness, health, and security so that each resident may realize his or her full potential. In doing so we facilitate the basic Quaker principle that "there is God in every person," meaning that everyone has worth and value. Through continuous improvement and expansion, the organization will provide affordable services to the aged and support to the community at large. We accept the responsibility to promote consistent quality care while providing a home for our residents.
