GUIDELINES FOR RESEARCH GRANT APPLICATIONS

1. The Foundation awards grants for research and educational projects in floriculture and related fields at universities, colleges, and Federal research institutions in the United States.
2. Grant applications must be postmarked on or before April 1st for consideration at the spring meeting, where applications are reviewed and decisions made. The grant applicant is informed of the decision shortly thereafter, and checks for approved grants are mailed the following August.
3. For efficient distribution of applications to the Review Committee, submit ten (10) copies to the Foundation office. Please number the pages, use space and a half, no less than a 12 pitch font, and print front and back if possible . If these specifications are not followed, the proposal will be returned to the researcher(s). Include images if critical for understanding of the proposal.
4. As one prepares the financial information, think of a September to August research year, rather than a calendar year. Please include a Budget Page.
5. Include anticipated duration of the project. Grants are awarded for one year only, and may be evaluated and considered for renewal upon receipt of a progress report, plans for the coming year, and a written request for continuation of funding. It cannot be assumed that renewal will be approved automatically.
6. The Foundation does not pay any indirect costs (overhead) on its research and education grants. Nor does it pay faculty or principal investigator's salary.
7. At the completion of a project, send a final report (reprints or theses are acceptable) to the Foundation Office before the end of the calendar year. In publications, a footnote acknowledging financial support of the Fred C. Gloeckner Foundation, Inc. will be appreciated. Please e-mail a pdf of the progress report to the Foundation for posting on the Foundation website (thutter@fredgloeckner.com). You may choose to have us delay the posting of your Progress Report if it is considered "Confidential". Please inform us of the length of the delay that is necessary.

The Fred C. Gloeckner Foundation, Inc. is a non-profit, educational corporation organized in December, 1960 to provide a source of financial aid for research and educational projects in Floriculture and in the supporting and allied fields, such as agricultural economics, agricultural engineering, entomology, molecular biology, plant breeding, plant pathology, and plant physiology related to Floriculture. The Foundation is exempt from Federal Income Tax as an organization described in section 501 (c) (3) of the code of 1954
