Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO, Top Management	When a new president is hired, compensation shall be set by the Board of Directors following a review of compensation levels at other Maine non-profit organizations with comparable budgets and programs. This review shall serve as guidance to the Board, but not the only determinant of compensation level. Future adjustments in compensation may be made by the Board as it sees fit. Normally, this will occur through the annual budget process. The Board may consider increases in compensation as cost of living adjustments, as the result of organizational growth, and/or to reward exceptional job performance. The Board may also consider decreases in compensation, depending on the fiscal health of the organization and/or job performance. Before making any compensation adjustment in excess of 5% (up or down), the Board shall once again review compensation levels at other Maine non-profit organizations to guide its decision.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b Compensation Review and Approval Process for Officers and Key Employees	All other staff are hired by the president. When a new employee is hired, compensation is set by the president based on several factors, including (but not necessarily limited to) the new employee's skills and experience, equity with other MFT staff doing similar work, and a review of compensation levels for similar jobs at other Maine non-profit organizations. Future adjustments in compensation may be made by president, normally following an annual performance review as part of the annual budget process. The president may consider increases in compensation as cost of living adjustments, as the result of changes in job description, and/or to reward exceptional job performance. In extraordinary circumstances, the president may also consider decreases in compensation.
