Return Reference	Explanation
Part II, Line 9 Organization Reporting of conservation easements	Easements acquired by the Organization are conservation easements and represent numerous restrictions over the use and development of land not owned by the Organization. Since these easements have no marketable value, and therefore no future economic benefit, they are not recorded as assets on the statement of financial position. All easements acquired by purchase are expensed in the statement of financial position. In all cases, the Organization monitors activities on the land and enforces restrictions.
Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of the endowment fund	The Organization maintains and manages an endowment fund to provide income for general operations and to provide financial support to specific conservation projects.
