Return Reference	Explanation
Part X FIN48 Footnote	Management has analyzed its various federal filings for the last three preceding years that remain open within the statute of limitations and they believe that the Organization's reported revenues and deductions are well documented and supported, and that no controversial or questionable income tax reporting positions have been taken regarding these filings. Consequently, management believes that there are no unasserted tax liabilities, interest or penalties related to these filings and, accordingly, has made no provision for contingent income tax liabilities.
