The Foundation has been developing a center for the arts in Yerevan, Armenia. In order to facilitate the construction of the center in a foreign country, the Foundation has set up a non-profit entity in Armenia under local law. The Armenian entity is funded in whole or in part and controlled entirely by the Foundation. The directors of the Foundation constitute the majority of the board of trustees of the Armenian entity and have the power to appoint and remove trustees. The Republic of Armenia has contributed to the Armenian entity lands and a partially constructed structure, called "The Cascade" that is composed of a series of steps, terraces, foundations and exhibition spaces ascending the hillside and is incorporated in the architectural site. The Foundation makes transfers of funds to the Armenian entity to cover some or all of the costs of purchasing additional land for the center's site; landscaping the center's grounds; repairing existing outdoor structures, foundations, and irrigation systems; designing and constructing the buildings; and creating the interior of the exhibition space to ensure that it is suitable location for the display of sculpture and other artworks. All expenditures relating to the foregoing are subject to the approval of the board of directors of the Foundation. The directors of the Foundation make all decisions regarding the preparation of the center's site; the hiring of a project architect and contractors; the negotiation of all contracts relating to the creation of the center; and the construction and interior design of the facility. The Foundation covers certain costs of exhibiting the artworks in the center and pays for the shipment, insurance, installation, maintenance, and general conservation of the artworks owned by the Foundation. The Foundation gathers and makes available information about contemporary artists and assists artists in exhibiting their works. It establishes and sustains a commitment to the educational resources necessary to foster the understanding of contemporary art by the viewing public and enhances the quality of the cultural experience of visitors to the Museum Foundation's center for the arts through meaningful encounters between public, the artists and their works.
