Part VI, line 11

Form 990, including attachments, is prepared by an outside preparer. It is then presented to the President and the members of the Executive Board. It is reviewed and signed off by the chair of the Board of Directors. At the next scheduled business meeting, an announcement is made and written into the Minutes that Form 9900 has been filed and is available in the club's office, upon request, for a review by a club's member in good standing.

Part VI, line 19

All governing documents, policies and financial statements are available, during the business hours, for review by members. All records are kept in the club's office and, upon a freedom of information request, are available for public viewing. Form 990 is filed with the IRS and, if requested, a copy is made available to the parent organization in Chicago, IL.

Part XII, line 2(c)

The Constitution and the By-laws mandate annual election of a three member Board of Directors. The Board oversees that the club is managed properly and honestly. The members meet quarterly to examine the financial health of the club and the operations and subsequently issue a report. The Board is represented at the Executive Board meetings and participates in the financial and economic discussions of the club. The members arrange meetings between themselves or together with the officers to assess the financial and material issues. The chairperson has the right to demand information for himself and the directors. The rights encompasses all matters concerning club's operations. They also have the authority to request and demand an independent audit, if deemed necessary.
