Liability for uncertain tax position Fin 48 (ASC 740)	Part X The Lighthouse follows guidance that clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, including the issues relating to financial statement recognition and measurement. This guidance provides that the tax effects from an uncertain tax position can only be recognized in the financial statements if the position is "more-likely-than-not" to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority. The assessment of the tax position is based solely on the technical merits of the position, without regard to the likelihood that the tax position may be challenged. The lighthouse is exempt from income tax under IRC section 501(c)(3), though it is subject to tax on income unrelated to its exempt purpose, unless that income is otherwise excluded by the Code. The Lighthouse has processes presently in place to ensure the maintenance of its tax-exempt status, to identify and report unrelated income, to determine its filing and tax obligations in jurisdictions for which it has nexus, and to identify and evaluate other matters that may be considered tax positions. The tax years ended December 31, 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013 are still open to audit for both federal and state purposes. The Lighthouse has determined that there are no material uncertain tax positions that require recognition or disclosure in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule G, Part II	Lighthouse International is dedicated to fighting vision loss through prevention, treatment and empowerment. Essential to Lighthouse's mission is its ongoing fundraising efforts that enable it to provide services to the community in support of our mission. To that end, Lighthouse is reporting, for 990 purposes, an amount as "services rendered" that equals the expense of conducting the event since it is reasonable to project that the costs of holding each event were passed through to the attendees. For 990 reporting purposes, the Lighthouse has opted to report its special events consistent with how they are presented in the financial statements. The amounts reported on Schedule G and Part VIII, Line 8 tie back directly to Special Events revenue as reported in the financial statements. The $680,602 in special event expenses, likewise, ties back to the financial statements and represents direct special event expenses. The Lighthouse does incur indirect and overhead expenses on its special events, but those expenses have been reported on Part IX, Functional Expenses, rather than on Part VIII (again, so that the 990 ties back to the financial statements).

Other Program Service Activities	Form 990, Part III, line 4d In addition to the three largest program services, Lighthouse International undertakes the following other program activities <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1)Volunteers and reading services recruit outstanding individuals including college interns and business professionals who give of their time and expertise, volunteering in support of Lighthouse programs and its mission 2)The Filomen M. d'agostino Greenberg Music School is the only community music school program for people with vision loss in the United States, offering accessible instruction and a music technology center 3)Career, academic and technology services enable people who are legally blind to achieve their academic goals, prepare for, obtain or retain a job in the competitive marketplace, and provide evaluation and training on the use of assistive technology. Services include, Adult basic education, English as a Second Language (ESL), GED, tutoring and college preparation, and Matching employers with qualified candidates and ensuring workplace accessibility for employees with vision loss 4)Consumer products include the Optical Dispensary and Retail and Online Lighthouse Store which provide a wide range of lighting, magnifying and adaptive devices all of which are designed to make life easier for people with vision loss available to those who need them 5)The Arlene R. Gordon Research Institute conducts studies designed to translate scientific findings and advances in technology into practical solutions that can help people who are visually impaired function more effectively in everyday life 6)Public Information disseminates communications through various media outlets to raise widespread awareness of the prevalence of vision loss, and to promote the importance of prevention and early intervention, as well as the benefits of vision rehabilitation for people who are blind or visually impaired 7)Early intervention services are dedicated to helping children with visual impairments and/or developmental delays from birth to three years of age. Programs help infants and toddlers with vision problems and developmental delays reach the same developmental milestones as their peers. Services are offered to children in their home as well as in a classroom setting in the Child Development Center. During 2013, Lighthouse International changed its home based early intervention program by eliminating service coordination and began to offer home based vision related therapy only. Children with non-vision related therapy needs received those services from other early intervention providers in the community 8)Social services assist people and their families and caregivers in adjusting to and coping with vision loss, by addressing the emotional and psychological impact of the vision loss so that independence, dignity and quality of life are maintained. Services are provided in individual and group settings 9)Outreach encompasses the development of strategic initiatives and activities to advance awareness of vision related issues, and provides education and referrals for the full range of services provided by Lighthouse International in the New York metropolitan area 10)Policy and advocacy includes outreach to raise awareness of vision impairment, and advocacy initiatives, which promote the rights of people with vision loss and their inclusion in mainstream society 11)The Grunwald Technology Center provides people who are visually impaired with access and instruction on using advances in technology to better navigate their lives. Our technology team provides our students, clients and patients with instruction, training, demonstrations and forums, both on-site and virtually on the web, utilizing cutting-edge technologies to significantly enhance the lives of people who are visually impaired. By reducing or eliminating many barriers that people with vision impairment experience, technology can significantly improve the lives of those most in need
