Return Reference	Explanation
Part II-B, Line 1	The Foundation advocates public policy issues that support its mission. From time to time, the Foundation may state a position on specific legislation to legislators or other government employees who participate in the formulation of legislation or issue a "call to action" to the general public via its print, web-based and other communications to contact their legislators with a position on specific legislation. Lobbying activities are limited and do not constitute a substantial part of the Foundation's activities. The Foundation does not employ a paid lobbyist, however, the Foundation is a member of a national association, the National Health Council, whose membership dues support limited lobbying activities. The Foundation does not support candidates for public office or make political campaign donations.
