Form 990 - Explanation of Amended Return

The 2013 Form 990 is amended to reflect amendments on Schedule A, Part III, and Form 990, page 9, line 1C.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

The mission of The Jed Foundation (the Foundation) is to promote emotional health and prevent suicide among college and university students. To achieve this end, the organization collaborates with the public and leaders in higher education, mental health, and research to produce and advance initiatives that: Promote awareness and understanding that emotional well-being is achievable, mental illness is treatable and suicide is preventable; increase knowledge of the warning signs of suicide and emotional distress; foster help-seeking so that those who need supportive services reach out to secure them, or are referred to services by a peer; build and strengthen resilience, coping skills and connectedness among young adults, their peers, families and communities; facilitate adoption of a comprehensive, community-based approach to promote emotional health and protect at-risk students on campus; and raise the importance of mental health services, policies and programs in the college selection process of students and parents.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

JedCampus is a program that is designed to help colleges explore and enhance their campus mental health, substance abuse and suicide prevention programming. The Jed Foundation provides customized suggestions for enhancements which can become a road map for assisting schools in creating a comprehensive emotional health program on campus. The JedCampus seal is awarded to schools that exhibit comprehensive mental health promotion and suicide prevention programming based upon evaluation of the school's survey responses against the Jed Foundation's recommended practices in mental health programming. If the self-assessment survey reveals gaps in programming, Ulifeline is an anonymous, confidential, online resource center where college students can be comfortable searching for the information they need and want regarding mental health. The site includes information, interactive features, a screening tool and access to campus-specific resources for getting help. Currently, more than 1,400 colleges and universities participate in the Ulifeline network free of charge.

The Foundation and mtvU partnered to develop Half of Us, a Peabody Award-winning and Emmy-nominated social awareness campaign, that uses on-air PSAs and programming, an online resource center (www.halfofus.com) and on-campus events, to raise awareness about the prevalence of emotional disorders on college campuses and connect students with the appropriate resources to get help.

The Jed Foundation and the Bob Woodruff Foundation have partnered to create an online training tool that helps campus health professionals best understand the student veteran perspective, engage with them on campus, and provide the resources and support they need to succeed.
