CHECKLIST C501

Board Review of Form 990 (See Key Issue 3C)

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) believes that the governing board of an exempt organization must diligently work to ensure that the organization fulfills its exempt mission and to minimize the likelihood that its income or assets will be diverted improperly to nonexempt purposes.

A properly prepared Form 990 contains the information necessary for a board member to become well-informed about (1) the organization's activities and (2) the applicable tax laws. An understanding of both these areas is essential in order for a board member to effectively perform his or her fiduciary responsibilities. For this reason, Form 990 asks whether the tax return was furnished to the board prior to filing. In addition, all organizations must describe the process, if any, the board uses to review Form 990.

For the board members of many organizations, a review of Form 990 that is more than cursory may seem overwhelming. Therefore, this checklist is designed to help board members who are not exempt organization tax practitioners comprehend the significance of the data in their organization's Form 990.
