Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Organization is exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(a) as an organization described in Section 501(c)(6) and from state income tax pursuant to state law. The Organization engages in certain activities which are "unrelated business activities" as defined by the Internal Revenue Code, and which are subject to taxation. Income taxes on unrelated business income are recognized as expenses as incurred. The Organization has not taken any material uncertain tax positions for which the associated tax benefits may not be recognized under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Federal and state tax authorities may generally examine the Organization's income tax positions or (if applicable) returns for periods of approximately three to six years.

Part I, Line 1a	On occasion, the Organization paid for first-class travel for the domestic portion of international trips taken by the President when international business class airfare was incurred. On one occasion, the Organization paid for first-class travel for the domestic portion of an international trip taken by the Past Vice Chairman when international business class airfare was incurred. The Organization paid the travel costs of the spouses of five officers to attend the Organization's international conference. The spouses act as a welcoming committee to the delegates and their spouses. As such, the spouses perform significant duties for the Organization at the conference and their travel is for a bona fide business purpose of the Organization. Reimbursement of travel for applicable spouses of officers to attend the annual international conference is in accordance with the Organization's Board Policy Manual.
Part I, Line 4b	The President, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Information Officer, Vice President of North America Services, Senior Vice President/Chief Officer of North America Operations, and Vice President - Professional Services of the Organization participate in a nonqualified Section 457(f) deferred compensation plan. Contributions totaling $215,000 were deposited into the plan during the year ended December 31, 2013 on behalf of these individuals.
Part II	The Organization has adopted an executive compensation setting policy applicable to all disqualified persons, including the Organization's President, officers, and key employees. Under the policy, an independent committee of the Board of Directors annually reviews and approves the compensation levels of all individuals subject to the policy. The deliberations and decisions of the committee are contemporaneously substantiated. The committee utilizes comparability data in its deliberations; updated comparability data is generally obtained annually.
