Also complete this part to provide any additional information (see instructions).

Pt I Line 2 NCP maintains on-going partnerships with grassroots organization in areas of the world to which it dispenses grants. NCP provides guidelines for the type of grant funding available; The partners then submit requests for program support. These requests are reviewed regarding the amount requested and whether the intent of the programs fits NCP guidelines. After making grants, NCP staff then visit these project areas to discuss the programs, to plan for the future, and to asses the projects in terms of effectiveness, collaboration with those being served, and transparency in regards to the use of funds. Reports are then made to the NCP board and to the NCP network. Members of the NCP network also visit these partners and have the chance to meet the program participants on NCP Learning Tours.
