Please contact IDG Advisors LLC if there are any changes in your financial situation or investment objectives, or if you wish to impose, add or modify any reasonable restrictions to the management of your account. Our current disclosure statement is set forth on Part II of Form ADV and is available for your review upon request. The information contained on this report was derived from reliable sources but is not a substitute for the statements provided by your account custodian. The Dow Index, S&P 500 and the NASDAQ indices are presented to provide information about how the markets are performing as a whole and not as a benchmark for your account performance. The Dow Index is a price-weighted average of thirty actively traded stocks, and is a widely used indicator of the overall condition of the stock market. The S&P 500 is also a benchmark indicator of the overall US stockmarket and is based on the average performance of the common stock of the 500 largest US firms. The NASDAQ composite index is a market-value weighted index of all common stocks listed on NASDAQ. An investment cannot be made directly into an index weighted index of all common stocks listed on NASDAQ.
