| Form 990, Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 | Liability for Uncertain Tax Positions Mather LifeWays, Mather Foundation, Mather Healthcare, Inc , Mather Investments, NFP, Mather Possibilities, and The Mather have received favorable determination letters from the Internal Revenue Service stating that they are exempt from federal income taxes under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, except for income taxes pertaining to unrelated business income. The Financial Accounting Standards Board issued guidance that requires tax effects from uncertain tax positions to be recognized in the consolidated financial statements only if the position is more likely than not to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority. Management has determined there are no material uncertain positions that require recognition in the consolidated financial statements. Additionally, no provision for incomes taxes is reflected in these consolidated financial statements. The calendar years ending 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013 are open to audit for federal income tax purposes. The entities of Mather LifeWays file tax returns in certain states, however, they do not file in every state. For all states where the entities have not filed a state return, all tax years remain open. |

| Form 990, Schedule J, Part I, Line 3  | Top Management's Compensation Mather Foundation's top management's compensation is established by Mather LifeWays, as the compensation is paid by Mather LifeWays (a related organization). Mather LifeWays follows procedures to establish the "rebuttable" presumption of reasonableness described in the Income Tax Regulations in determining executive compensation. Compensation is reviewed annually by the Board's Compensation Committee, which consists of independent directors who obtain and rely on appropriate data as to comparability. Objective evidence of reasonableness and comparability is obtained from information provided by an independent, third party compensation consultant. Determination of executive compensation involves benchmarking with comparative market compensation data to ensure that compensation is fair, equitable, and within the standards of compensation utilized within the industry. Compensation decisions are documented and reviewed with the full Board. |
| Form 990, Schedule J, Part I, Line 4B | Supplemental nonqualified retirement plan. Mary G. Leary and Carol Sussenbach are participants in Mather LifeWays' 457(f) plans. Distributions of $133,691 and $9,313, respectively, were paid out in 2013.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
