On every Saturday we serve about 50-100 visitors. On festival days (totalling 7) we served a total of 5000 visitors. These are basically community outreach programs like conducting personality enhancement workshops for attaining better focus in life, cultivate positive value systems, develop interpersonal skills, increase operational skills and enhance personal growth. We introduced a special set of classes called 'Art of Self Discovery' We conducted 12 such sessions last year. We also did our standard 'Art of mind control', 'solving challenges in life', 'healthy eating habits and positive thinking', 'higher happiness through spiritual principles'. In total we had around 180 people attending these various sessions and they are giving nice feedback about the impact of these sessions

We were able to attract hundreds of new people to be able to visit our facility and do archana and have prasadam. Lot of people (this year around 140) have become regulars and are improving in spiritual life.
