Part I Summary

Activities & Governance	1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities Caring House will provide a home completely focused on end-of-life needs, with care for those who are dying and support for their families and loved ones. Compared to the person's home, Caring House will be the next best place - and in some cases, a better place. Caring House will become the "home" for 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, in which a person spends their last days surrounded by love. Family members and friends freed from home care duties will be able to spend their time and energy supporting and connecting with the dying person, and with each other. We plan to have six attractive and comfortable private rooms for residents - with open common areas for families and loved ones. Caring House will be open to terminally ill adults without regard to race, ethnicity, national origin, religious beliefs, sexual orientation, age or gender.

Facts And Circumstances Test

 If we had filed Schedule A for 2012, our public support percentage reported on that Schedule A would have been greater than 57%. We were not required to file Schedule A for 2012 because our total revenues for that and each of the prior 3 years were less than $32,000. We filed Form 990-N for 2012.  In the second half of 2013 we found a home to purchase to serve our future residents. At that time we intensified our fundraising activity. That activity is now continuous and ongoing.  We had 48 separate donors in 2013. Two of those donors made large donations that are almost totally excluded in the public support calculation.  The Caring House home will be renovated and we plan to open for residents later in 2014. We will serve the public by providing compassionate care to those who are dying and support for their families and loved ones.  We are a grassroots, volunteer-based group. Our board and core volunteer group represent a diverse and growing portion of the public.
