We believe all are deserving of the basic human rights of food, shelter, education, protection, and health care. Our immigration legal department is staffed with BIA accredited personnel, who continue to receive regular monthly training with USCIS in Dallas and various educational conferences and webinars sponsored by CLINIC (Catholic Legal Immigration Network, Inc.) throughout the year. We provide immigration legal services as a way to reunite families and promote self-sufficiency for immigrants through low cost legal assistance in legal matters. Funds are awarded annually and are based on availability and the number of applicants. Consideration is given to recommendations made by the food bank as to pantries most in need.
