Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Part I, line 2 - Describe in Part IV the organization's procedures for monitoring the use of grant funds in the United States

Financial assistance - The Organization provides financial assistance to employees of Atria Senior Living, Inc. and its affiliates (Atria) and/or their family members who are coping with a personal tragedy due to a disaster or other emergency hardship, such as a natural catastrophe or a medical emergency. The employee (applicant) seeking financial assistance must complete and submit an application. Once submitted, an Independent Selection Committee consisting of a majority of persons who are not in a position to exercise substantial influence over the affairs of Atria decides based on an objective determination of need whether the applicant qualifies for financial assistance and how much financial assistance shall be provided if it is determined the employee qualifies for assistance.

Scholarships - The Organization established a scholarship program in 2006 to award scholarships to qualified applicants that are legal dependents of Atria employees that have completed one-year of continuous service and have met certain good standing requirements. The scholarships are to be used for tuition and related qualified educational expenses at an accredited public or private, two or four-year college, university or technical college in the United States.

All qualified applicants are required to complete and submit an application, along with a two page essay describing his/her accomplishments and plans for the future, two letters of reference, and a current official high school or college transcript. Applicants must be a high school senior or graduate who will be enrolled in one of the post-secondary

Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Part I, line 2 (Con't) - Describe in Part IV the organization's procedures for monitoring the use of grant funds in the United States educational institutions listed above in the year the scholarship is awarded. Only applicants with a current cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 are considered.

The Organization employs objective and nondiscriminatory criteria in its guidelines and procedures for awarding and administering its scholarships. All completed applications of eligible applicants are reviewed by an independent Selection Committee. The Selection Committee selects recipients each year based on the applicant's academic merit and commitment to excellence. The Selection Committee evaluates each eligible applicant's academic record, accomplishments, plans for the future and other information provided in their application. No applicant may receive the scholarship more than once. Further, no scholarships are awarded to relatives of any member of the Selection Committee, or any officer or director of Atria Cares or Atria. Once awarded, the scholarships will not be terminated as a result of the employee terminating employment with Atria.

Scholarship recipients are required to maintain a greater than 2.5 GPA and be academically in good standing. Recipients are required to provide periodic transcripts to verify compliance with the academic requirements necessary for award payment. If the recipient fails to maintain the required GPA or comply with any other condition of the Scholarship Program, any remaining Scholarship funds are subject to forfeiture. Future disbursements of the remaining scholarship balances are dependent upon the recipients' compliance with the terms and provisions of the scholarship program.
