Statement of Program Service Accomplishments (see the instructions for Part III)

Check if the organization used Schedule O to respond to any question in this Part III

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
We are a science-based organization that uses photography to discover, document and share the overlooked and disappearing life in places with high and at-risk biodiversity Through our outreach programs we empower international citizen scientists to become stewards of their local ecosystems Our goal is to help people, governments and organizations make informed decisions that will keep intact their local wild lands

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title

28 FIELD RESEARCH Many volunteer participants in western Ecuador assisted in collecting data on hundreds of animals, including several new species The participants took thousands of data points, which continue to be analyzed to produce and disseminate information to managers to make informed conservation decisions Results were reported to the Ecuadorian government and are also reported at www.BiodiversityGroup.org Photographs and information on new and rare species were shared via our website and outreach programs
(Grants $ 0) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here

Software Version: v1.00

Explanation: Th Biodiversity Group is a very small organization with a very limited support services budget. In 2014, our volunteer bookkeeper and accountant, Gaye L Hamilton, died in the process of reconciling our books for 2013. This obviously left a huge gap in capacity and a lot to catch up on. We have since hired a professional accounting firm, Jitasa Accounting, to assist with our books, although our volunteer Executive Director, Paul Hamilton, was still left with the bulk of the work in categorizing expenses and income. We are finally caught up with 2013, and nearly caught up with 2014. We will be filing our 2014 990 (full) ahead of time. Thank you for your understanding.
