ELI contributes small grants to organizations that host our volunteers. Based on feedback from our continuing volunteer efforts with an organization, needs are determined. ELI then sets aside funds to be used by future volunteers when they visit the project. Due to the work taking place in rural, extremely impoverished regions, traditional accounting methods cannot be employed. However our U.S. volunteers monitor progress on the various projects. Currently, we have been concentrating these efforts in southwestern Uganda and somewhat in Nepal. Funded projects include orphanage construction and child nutrition.
