Come & See Africa International is nearing the end of capital building project in Africa. Three contributors have given major support during this capital project over the past four years. The project should be completed this year. The expectation is that the amount of contributions will decrease overall and particularly from these contributors over the next few years.

We expect the public support percentage for 2014 to return to its past percentage of above 33%.

Come & See African International EIN 20 3511372

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

1. PURPOSE:

The purpose of CASA is to recruit, equip, and send Christian professionals and volunteers to eastern Africa for a structured missionary experience. These short-term missionaries lead Christian seminars, provide training in areas of their expertise, and minister to university students, meeting their spiritual and intellectual needs. The focus of outreach of CASA is to students at the National University of Rwanda (NUR). CASA is associated with Come and See Rwanda (CASR) a registered non-profit corporation in Rwanda. The purpose of CASR is to provide discipleship training in and around Butare, Rwanda with a special focus on the students of the NUR.

2. ACHIEVEMENTS for 2013

A. Maintain the Christian Student House in Butare, Rwanda ($27,500)

CASA maintains a house in Butare, Rwanda, year-round near the National University of Rwanda (NUR). This is our base of operation in Africa. CASA supports this house with about $2500 per month. This cost covers personnel, rent, supplies, and materials. In addition we support house activities with a $1000 mission fee for each missionary staying at the house.

1. About 35 NUR students drop by the house daily for counsel, prayer, & study
2. About 12 students per week spend the night in one of the two guest rooms at no charge. Many of these visits are overnight prayer sessions.
3. There are Bible Study classes held in the house six days a week. There are about 150 students over the course of a week.
4. In the morning, the house is open to local farmers for devotions. There are typically 5 to 10 women with 20-30 children in house between 6 to 7 am.
5. Children's ministries are held on Saturday mornings at the facility with about 20 children attending for instruction and play.

B. Support of Christian missionaries while in Africa ($8,000)

In 2013, two missionaries stayed in the house in support of an international student's conference in January. Their fees were received and reported in 2012. The assistant director also stayed at the facility from August until November. He helped to coordinate with the construction project between CASA and CASR. The $1000 fees for the seven missionaries were received in 2013 for the January 2014 international student conference.

C. Support of International Student Conference ($7500)

In January of 2013 CASA supported an International Christian Student Conference hosted by CASR. About 200 African students from five East African countries attended the conference. American and African speakers from four countries instructed the students over a three day period.

D. Constructing a new campus ministry center called the Lighthouse ($130,559)

In 2013 ownership of the land on which the facility sits was transferred to CASR. The Lighthouse will be owned and operated by CASR. The house ground floor is designed as a student ministry and conference center. The three additional floors will house shops, a hotel, and a restaurant. The income from these businesses will be used by CASR to support the campus ministries, the Christian community, and the poor in the area. In 2013 CASA shipped one 40 foot cargo container to Rwanda with donated and purchased building supplies and equipment. CASA also continued to support the ongoing local construction. The project is about 70% complete.
