Community Financial Resources

Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

CFR provides research, education, program development and technical assistance for non-profit organizations and their low-income constituents on financial literacy, money management, and accessing and effectively using low-cost financial products and services.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

In 2013 Community Financial Resources worked with over 100 organizations on research, education, program development and technical assistance for non-profit organizations and their low-income constituents to enhance financial capabilities, improve money management skills, access and effectively use low-cost financial products and services. Over 4500 low and middle income people were enrolled in CFR programs at Volunteer Income Tax Assistance sites, nonprofit housing-support, income-support, asset-building, places of employment, and migrant worker community service organizations. CFR's financial education program integrates financial products into an experiential financial capability program motivating participants to work with financial coaches and practice beneficial financial behaviors such as direct depositing pay and benefits, automating bill payment, transferring funds to savings, and prudent borrowing.
