Narrative Description of Activities

The Cousins Properties Foundation (the "Foundation") was formed on December 23, 2005 as a Georgia non-profit corporation. The Foundation is a grant making organization that seeks to support qualified charitable organizations and initiatives that stabilize and sustain communities through social welfare programs. The Foundation intends to provide financial support to successful applicants, where applicants will be qualified 501(c)(3) organizations, except those organizations described in 509(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Foundation is the product of the historical practice of charitable contributions by Cousins Properties Incorporated, a Georgia corporation, Cousins Real Estate Corporation, a Georgia corporation ("CREC") and their associated companies. It is intended that the Foundation will better organize the corporate practice of charitable contribution and will focus funds and energies on targeted efforts and issues.

The Foundation considers grant requests on a rolling basis throughout the fiscal year. Upon receipt of a grant application, the Foundation officers evaluate the grant requests and then review the request and evaluation with the President of the Foundation. The President of the Foundation then determines whether, when and how much to grant with respect to each request, taking into consideration the recommendation of the Foundation officers. Successful applicants will demonstrate substantive programming that improves the conditions and social welfare of the targeted communities. In addition, grant making criteria include demonstration that the activities selected for funding will result in a sustainable and measurable improvement in the target community. While unsolicited grants may be reviewed, the Foundation intends to focus its grant making on the Southeastern and Southwestern United States, but may make grants in other geographic areas. Since its formation, the Foundation has made grants to several 501(c)(3) organizations.

The Foundation is controlled by a board of directors designated by CREC. CREC is the sole contributor to the Foundation. The Foundation anticipates that CREC may make future grants to the Foundation. However, CREC is not obligated to make any future contributions, and the Foundation is not dependent upon any such future grants to pursue its mission. In addition, the Foundation does not intend to solicit or accept contributions from any other person.

The Foundation operates through the offices of CREC in Atlanta, Georgia. The officers of the Foundation are all also officers of CREC. The Foundation does not compensate or otherwise reimburse CREC for the cost of any service provided by the officers. Further, the Foundation does not compensate or reimburse CREC for the cost of the use of space or office overhead related to the Foundation acuities.

The Foundation does not intend to engage in any direct service activities, and it will dedicate 100% of its time to the provision of grants to qualified organizations. Further, the Foundation does not intend to engage in any prohibited activities, including lobbying or otherwise influencing legislation. The Foundation does not discriminate in its determination of grant recipients nor will it support any organizations that discriminate on the basis of race, class, color, religion or national origin. The Foundation will not make grants to individuals.

2013 ANNUAL STATEMENT SUMMARY

The following sections are provided to facilitate your review and the preparation of your tax return.

The 2013 Proceeds from Broker and Barter Exchange Transactions section includes both sales of positions for "covered securities" and "noncovered securities." A covered security includes those with a purchase date within the following timeline: Equities acquired on or after January 1, 2011 and Mutual Funds acquired on or after January 1, 2012. Legislation requires reporting the gross proceeds of the sales of "covered" and "noncovered" securities and the adjusted cost basis for "covered securities." Any sale of a security that is considered a "noncovered security" will still be included in this section with the adjusted cost basis (where available).

In calculating gain (loss), unless otherwise noted, it was assumed that the oldest position was liquidated first, and that you have made an election to amortize the premium paid on the purchase of taxable bonds. Under the Cost Basis Reporting Regulations, brokers need not track wash sale activity for substantially identical securities, transactions across accounts, or between covered and non-covered securities. However, you as a taxpayer still have to track and report wash sales as you have in the past which would include all of the aforementioned transaction types. Securities distributed from a retirement account reflect the tax basis on the date of distribution. Other methods for calculating gain (loss) are available. The cost basis for most Original Issue Discount ("OID") obligations includes the accretion of OID. For purposes of allocating original purchase price to the components of an equity unit consisting of a purchase contract and a debt security subject to a remarketing event, we assumed that the fair market value of the debt security on purchase date was equal to its adjusted issue price. The difference between your original cost and the amount allocable to the debt component was allocated to the purchase contract. In making adjustments to the cost basis of the purchase contract, it was assumed that the unit holder included contract adjustment payments in income when received.

This is important tax information and is being furnished to the Internal Revenue Service. If you are required to file a return, a negligence penalty or other sanction may be imposed on you if this income is taxable and the IRS determines that it has not been reported.

(W) This transaction has been identified as a "Wash Sale" based on IRS regulations. The Wash Sale Loss Disallowed column reflects the deferred loss amount. The cost basis of the related transaction(s) has been adjusted by the deferred loss amount from either the cost basis on purchases or proceeds from short sales. Please refer to the instructions for Form 8949 for how to report the deferred loss amount and applicable adjustment code.

(Y) The gain or loss of this transaction includes an adjustment to basis for the deferred loss amount on one or more previous "Wash Sales."

2013 ANNUAL STATEMENT SUMMARY

The following sections are provided to facilitate your review and the preparation of your tax return.

The 2013 Proceeds from Broker and Barter Exchange Transactions section includes both sales of positions for "covered securities" and "noncovered securities." A covered security includes those with a purchase date within the following timeline: Equities acquired on or after January 1, 2011 and Mutual Funds acquired on or after January 1, 2012. Legislation requires reporting the gross proceeds of the sales of "covered" and "noncovered" securities and the adjusted cost basis for "covered securities." Any sale of a security that is considered a "noncovered security" will still be included in this section with the adjusted cost basis (where available).

In calculating gain (loss), unless otherwise noted, it was assumed that the oldest position was liquidated first, and that you have made an election to amortize the premium paid on the purchase of taxable bonds. Under the Cost Basis Reporting Regulations, brokers need not track wash sale activity for substantially identical securities, transactions across accounts, or between covered and non-covered securities. However, you as a taxpayer still have to track and report wash sales as you have in the past which would include all of the aforementioned transaction types. Securities distributed from a retirement account reflect the tax basis on the date of distribution. Other methods for calculating gain (loss) are available. The cost basis for most Original Issue Discount ("OID") obligations includes the accretion of OID. For purposes of allocating original purchase price to the components of an equity unit consisting of a purchase contract and a debt security subject to a remarketing event, we assumed that the fair market value of the debt security on purchase date was equal to its adjusted issue price. The difference between your original cost and the amount allocable to the debt component was allocated to the purchase contract. In making adjustments to the cost basis of the purchase contract, it was assumed that the unit holder included contract adjustment payments in income when received.

This is important tax information and is being furnished to the Internal Revenue Service. If you are required to file a return, a negligence penalty or other sanction may be imposed on you if this income is taxable and the IRS determines that it has not been reported.

2013 ANNUAL STATEMENT SUMMARY

The following sections are provided to facilitate your review and the preparation of your tax return.

The 2013 Proceeds from Broker and Barter Exchange Transactions section includes both sales of positions for "covered securities" and "noncovered securities." A covered security includes those with a purchase date within the following timeline: Equities acquired on or after January 1, 2011 and Mutual Funds acquired on or after January 1, 2012. Legislation requires reporting the gross proceeds of the sales of "covered" and "noncovered" securities and the adjusted cost basis for "covered securities." Any sale of a security that is considered a "noncovered security" will still be included in this section with the adjusted cost basis (where available).

In calculating gain (loss), unless otherwise noted, it was assumed that the oldest position was liquidated first, and that you have made an election to amortize the premium paid on the purchase of taxable bonds. Under the Cost Basis Reporting Regulations, brokers need not track wash sale activity for substantially identical securities, transactions across accounts, or between covered and non-covered securities. However, you as a taxpayer still have to track and report wash sales as you have in the past which would include all of the aforementioned transaction types. Securities distributed from a retirement account reflect the tax basis on the date of distribution. Other methods for calculating gain (loss) are available. The cost basis for most Original Issue Discount ("OID") obligations includes the accretion of OID. For purposes of allocating original purchase price to the components of an equity unit consisting of a purchase contract and a debt security subject to a remarketing event, we assumed that the fair market value of the debt security on purchase date was equal to its adjusted issue price. The difference between your original cost and the amount allocable to the debt component was allocated to the purchase contract. In making adjustments to the cost basis of the purchase contract, it was assumed that the unit holder included contract adjustment payments in income when received.

This is important tax information and is being furnished to the Internal Revenue Service. If you are required to file a return, a negligence penalty or other sanction may be imposed on you if this income is taxable and the IRS determines that it has not been reported.
