INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Trustees of the
Expect Miracles Foundation

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Expect Miracles Foundation (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2013, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Expect Miracles Foundation as of December 31, 2013, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Expect Miracles Foundation

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2013

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Organization

The Expect Miracles Foundation (the "Foundation") was founded with the purpose of leading the fight against cancer by raising funds and awareness through event-based programs and charitable donations. Proceeds from the Foundation's annual Golf Classic and International Wine Extravaganza and from other events go to benefit The Jimmy Fund, a part of the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute.

Public Support and Revenue

Sponsorship contributions are generally available for unrestricted use in the current year unless specifically restricted by the donor. Unconditional promises to give due in the next year are reflected as current promises to give and are recorded at their net realizable value.

Estimates & Subsequent Events

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The Foundation has evaluated events and transactions that occurred through November 11, 2014, which is the date the financial statements were issued, for possible disclosure and recognition in the financial statements.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Foundation considers cash on hand and money in checking and money market bank accounts to be cash and cash equivalents.

NOTE 2 - SPECIAL EVENTS REVENUE

The Foundation's primary source of generating revenues is collecting sponsorships for special events held at various times throughout the year. The majority of the Foundation's sponsorship income comes from its annual Golf Classic and International Wine Extravaganza. Total revenues generated by special events activities amounted to $1,301,471 for the year ended December 31, 2013.

Related expenses are shown as program expenses on the Foundation's Statement of Activities. Program expenses amounted to $132,831 for the year ended December 31, 2013.
