Baal Dan Charities focuses on identifying and vetting trustworthy organizations and partnerships in India that are child-focused and provide essential aid, shelter and education to vulnerable children, particularly orphans and street children. In 2013, Baal Dan audited these organizations for their impact, transparency and sustainability and provided specific grants for defined purposes such as food allocations, building projects (e.g. toilets, a water well etc.) and education (e.g. school fees, building education facilities, providing books etc). Since Baal Dan's inception in 2006, almost 200 projects have been reviewed and of those in 2013, 12 were selected as for grants and aid. These projects were then held responsible for reporting the impact and outcome of the Baal Dan grant that was provided and Baal Dan provided its donors with updates throughout the year through the e-newsletter and social media communications as well as an end of year report.

India: Providing education sponsorships, building a vocational training center, multi-year feeding programs and supplies, support and building maintenance and other grants for 9 orphanages/projects impacting almost 1,000 children.

This model having been proven effective and efficient with relatively low administrative costs and a high degree of oversight was tested in some "pilot" countries in 2013. All the pilot grants provided were for very specific purposes as noted herein.

Pakistan: Provision of text books and supplies for an elementary school for 650 street children.

Baal Dan raises money in the United States and then provides grants to projects in Asia, Africa, North and South America. Grants are allocated to orphanages, school, charities and grassroot projects that have been audited (personally visited) by a Baal Dan representative and meet certain requirements. Baal Dan works with these projects to determine how best to help the children in their care.

In order for a project to receive a grant application, certain requirements must be met. A grant application is required annually for each project. This application requires, among other things, a statement of the projects purpose and goals along with a brief description of sources of funds. The grant requestor agrees to use the funds provided by Baal Dan directly for the children it serves. It also agrees to provide written reports to Baal Dan as to the use of the funds as well as to maintain records and receipts for Baal Dan's review upon request.
The projects selected for grants must allow unrestricted access to Baal Dan's representatives for purposes of project review, either through personal site visits, phone discussions or e-mails. Also, each grant requestor must certify that it has not provided and will not provide support or resources to any individual or organization that advocates, plans, sponsors, engages in, or has engaged in terrorist activity.

Once a grant request has been received, each request is reviewed and determined where the project is stable, reputable and in keeping with Baal Dan's purpose and goals. All grants over $5,000 are approved by Baal Dan's Board of Directors. In most cases funds are wired to the grant recipient.

Baal Dan Charities was founded in 2006 as a US non profit 501c3 by Tanya Pinto. Board members were selected upon formation of the charity and re-elected on an annual basis. The Board meets via conference call quarterly at a minimum with the main Annual Board Meeting taking place in the first half of the year and occurring via conference call or with members residing in the same city present while others join by conference. Board Members vote on all grant distributions over $5,000 and the Board is given the opportunity to view and approve all major

BARRACKPORE AVENUE SOCIETY: Baal Dan provided a grant of $60,000 to cover multiple purposes. The grant monies included the construction of a vocational training center to benefit over 100 children and women in the area for a cost of $15,000. It also included a multi-year allocation for the provision, maintenance, staffing, food and education expenses for 16 orphan girls at the Bachpan Girls Home and 14 orphan boys at the Bachpan Boys Home for the next 5 years. This grant was made to ensure security and sustainability for the children and also to create an effective exit strategy at the end of the multi-year period allowing time for the project to attract other donors.
