Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I line 2	The woman must show up for her appointment, complete the application, budget and her current development plan. She should provide current income validation for all in the household and proof of financial need (i.e., rent, utility, medical, mental health or phone bill, etc.). The landlord, utilities, health, mental health service is contacted (with signed consent to share this info faxed if required) to let the appropriate party know that a woman is working with Women Partnering. (When possible, we also help the woman receive assistance from other organizations.) The general maximum amount of financial assistance from Women Partnering is $250. Staff have the option of an additional $250 for exceptional circumstances/good cause. Any amount over $500 should be approved by the Board. The case must be documented thoroughly and the outcome must be positive & predictable. The assistance must have a good risk-rat-ion & should not exceed the given threshold. The funds are paid directly to the provider group/person, never directly to the woman. Receipts are expected. All transactions are logged in Quickbooks & each woman's file. Transportation stipends ($5) and childcare stipends ($10) are given each time a woman participates in most enhancement programs, after she completes a measure tied to growth in knowledge, skill and behavior. Each woman must date, sign, and identify amount received and program attended.
