The Central Oklahoma Humane Society (OK Humane) exists to enrich the communities it serves by promoting the well-being of animals. OK Humane's immediate goal is to eliminate the needless euthanasia of adoptable pets in Oklahoma City. This goal can only be achieved with a strong continued partnership with the Oklahoma City Animal Welfare Division and buy-in from the residents of central Oklahoma. OK Humane's programs are primarily designed to serve animals directly, however, all of the programs also influence the attitudes and behaviors of people as they relate to the humane treatment of pets. Compassion for animals directly translates to the compassionate treatment of all living beings, which OK Humane believes is key for a humane community.
