THE DOUGLAS MACHINE FOUNDATION

The Douglas Machine Foundation was created in 2007 to focus the philanthropic resources of Douglas Machine on community needs. Most of our resources are primarily focused on communities surrounding Alexandria and Deerwood

Minnesota. The Foundation's mission is to provide financial support to nonprofit organizations that focus on community improvement through social services, education and various faith-based initiatives. Douglas Machine's Community Stewardship encompasses all aspects of our philanthropy including Foundation contributions, volunteerism, and in-kind gifts.

The Douglas Machine Foundation's objectives are to:

- Improve the quality of life in our communities.
- Support Douglas Machine employees giving to United Way, social services, education and faith-based organizations through a gift-matching program.

The Foundation's grants will focus mainly on three areas:

- Social Services – supporting programs that seek to either strengthen families or serve the needs of disadvantaged people.
- Education – supporting programs that emphasize student academic achievement and provide scholarships.
- Faith-Based Initiatives – supporting education, health, human and social services programs that apply Biblical principles to nurture the physical, emotional, intellectual, and spiritual wellness of people.

When evaluating requests, the Douglas Machine Foundation will favor organizations meeting the following criteria:

- Mission is closely related to the Foundation's focus areas.
- Programs or activities involving Douglas Machine employees and retirees.
- Services create sustainable community improvement.

The Douglas Machine Foundation typically receives many more requests than it can support. A decision to decline a request does not imply that the applicant's program is not needed or valued, but simply that it does not fall within our giving guidelines or priorities, or that funds are not available.

As a standard practice, the Foundation does not support:

- Organizations without 501(c)(3) and 509(a) status.
- Individuals.
- Social, labor, veterans, alumni or fraternal organizations serving a limited constituency.
- Travel by groups.
- Recreational, sporting events or athletic associations.
- Organizations seeking underwriting for advertising.
- Political causes, candidates or legislative lobbying efforts.

The Douglas Foundation makes operating, project and capital grants. Priority is given to operating and project grants. Capital grants receive a lower priority and will largely be made to organizations in and surrounding the Alexandria and Deerwood communities, which have a long history of operating support and significant employee involvement.

Grant applications may be submitted at any time. To apply for funding, please complete the application provided and send it with your proposal to the address below. Please include the following information in your proposal:

- Organization's mission statement.
- Objectives for the current fiscal year.
- List of corporate/foundation donors including amount of United Way support.
- Most recent audited financial statement and/or Form 990 filing.
- Copy of the Internal Revenue Service ruling granting tax exemption under Sections 501(c)(3) and 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- List of Douglas Machine employees and retirees that volunteer with your organization.

Douglas Machine Foundation Benevolent Fund Guidelines

DOUGLAS MACHINE Employee Assistance

The Douglas Machine Benevolent Fund was created in 2007 as the arm of the Douglas Machine Foundation that supports company employees who need financial assistance due to a crisis situation in their lives. The purpose of this program is to provide confidential financial assistance to company employees during times of verifiable emergency situations.

Douglas Machine employees who are classified as regular full time or regular part time are eligible for assistance due to a crisis situation. A crisis situation must be an event impacting the employee, his/her spouse, or his/her dependents which is beyond the employee's control.

Examples of crisis situations which are considered for assistance include:

- Fire
- Natural disaster
- Theft or loss of property
- Accident
- Disease
- Extended illness or disability.

In cases of extended illness or disability, the fund is not intended to substitute or augment standard employee benefits such as health or disability insurance. The fund is, however, designed to provide assistance when extraordinary financial hardships result from the illness or disability.

Employees seeking emergency assistance shall meet with Douglas Machine's Human Resource Manager to complete a confidential application. All identifying information is removed to ensure confidentiality. A committee consisting of the Human Resource Manager and Douglas Machine's company officers reviews all applications and makes decisions based on the documented crisis and need. If the application is approved for assistance, as a general rule checks will be made payable to the creditor(s) on behalf of the employee.

The following documentation is required at the time of application:

- Written documentation or explanation of the incident which has created the financial hardship (i.e. physician's statements; accident, police or fire reports; etc.).
- Copies of statements for regularly occurring expenses of household members which cannot be paid (i.e. utilities, rent mortgage, insurance, car payment, day care, etc.).
- Copies of all co-payments, medical expenses, and pharmacy charges for medical conditions, if a physician's statement is submitted.
- Any other documentation which will support the case for emergency assistance.

As a general rule, up to $2,000 may be awarded to an employee during any 12-month period and $6,000 during the period of their employment with Douglas Machine. An employee may submit one application per crisis situation.

The Benevolent Fund also provides financial support for special community events directly benefiting an employee with a financial hardship. As a general rule, support for these events is in lieu of, instead of in addition to, direct assistance to the employee. Any employee may request this support on behalf of a fellow employee.

To apply for emergency assistance, or for more information, please contact Ray Frazee, Human Resource Manager, at 320.762.6222 or extension 6222.

- Organizations seeking underwriting for advertising.
- Political causes, candidates or legislative lobbying efforts.

The Douglas Foundation makes operating, project and capital grants. Priority is given to operating and project grants. Capital grants receive a lower priority and will largely be made to organizations in and surrounding the Alexandria and Deerwood communities, which have a long history of operating support and significant employee involvement.

Grant applications may be submitted at any time. To apply for funding, please complete the application provided and send it with your proposal to the address below. Please include the following information in your proposal:

- Organization's mission statement.
- Objectives for the current fiscal year.
- List of corporate/foundation donors including amount of United Way support.
- Most recent audited financial statement and/or Form 990 filing.
- Copy of the Internal Revenue Service ruling granting tax exemption under Sections 501(c)(3) and 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- List of Douglas Machine employees and retirees that volunteer with your organization.

Douglas Machine Foundation Grant Application Guidelines

DOUGLAS MACHINE Community Stewardship

The Douglas Machine Foundation was created in 2007 to focus the philanthropic resources of Douglas Machine on community needs. Most of our resources are primarily focused on communities surrounding Alexandria and Deerwood Minnesota. The Foundation's mission is to provide financial support to nonprofit organizations that focus on community improvement through social services, education and various faith-based initiatives. Douglas Machine's Community Stewardship encompasses all aspects of our philanthropy including Foundation contributions, volunteerism, and in-kind gifts.

The Douglas Machine Foundation's objectives are to:

- Improve the quality of life in our communities.
- Support Douglas Machine employees giving to United Way, social services, education and faith-based organizations through a gift-matching program.

The Foundation's grants will focus mainly on three areas:

- Social Services – supporting programs that seek to either strengthen families or serve the needs of disadvantaged people.
- Education – supporting programs that emphasize student academic achievement, and providing scholarships for the post-secondary education of our employee's children.
- Faith-Based Initiatives – supporting education, health, human and social services programs that apply Biblical principles to nurture the physical, emotional, intellectual, and spiritual wellness of people.

When evaluating requests, the Douglas Machine Foundation will favor organizations meeting the following criteria:

- Mission is closely related to the Foundation's focus areas.
- Programs or activities involving Douglas Machine employees and retirees.
- Services create sustainable community improvement.

The Douglas Machine Foundation typically receives many more requests than it can support. A decision to decline a request does not imply that the applicant's program is not needed or valued.

but simply that it does not fall within our giving guidelines or priorities, or that funds are not available.

As a standard practice, the Foundation does not support:

- Organizations without 501(c)(3) and 509(a) status.
- Individuals.
- Social, labor, veterans, alumni or fraternal organizations serving a limited constituency.
- Travel by groups.
- Recreational, sporting events or athletic associations.
- Organizations seeking underwriting for advertising.
- Political causes, candidates or legislative lobbying efforts.

Douglas Machine Foundation Benevolent Fund Guidelines

DOUGLAS MACHINE Employee Assistance

The Douglas Machine Benevolent Fund was created in 2007 as the arm of the Douglas Machine Foundation that supports company employees who need financial assistance due to a crisis situation in their lives. The purpose of this program is to provide confidential financial assistance to company employees during times of verifiable emergency situations.

Douglas Machine employees who are classified as regular full time or regular part time are eligible for assistance due to a crisis situation. A crisis situation must be an event impacting the employee, his/her spouse, or his/her dependents which is beyond the employee's control.

Examples of crisis situations which are considered for assistance include:

- Fire
- Natural disaster
- Theft or loss of property
- Accident
- Disease
- Extended illness or disability.

In cases of extended illness or disability, the fund is not intended to substitute or augment standard employee benefits such as health or disability insurance. The fund is, however, designed to provide assistance when extraordinary financial hardships result from the illness or disability.

Employees seeking emergency assistance shall meet with Douglas Machine's Human Resource Manager to complete a confidential application. All identifying information is removed to ensure confidentiality. A committee consisting of the Human Resource Manager and Douglas Machine's company officers reviews all applications and makes decisions based on the documented crisis and need. If the application is approved for assistance, as a general rule checks will be made payable to the creditor(s) on behalf of the employee.

The following documentation is required at the time of application:

- Written documentation or explanation of the incident which has created the financial hardship (i.e. physician's statements; accident, police or fire reports; etc.).
- Copies of statements for regularly occurring expenses of household members which cannot be paid (i.e. utilities, rent mortgage, insurance, car payment, day care, etc.).
- Copies of all co-payments, medical expenses, and pharmacy charges for medical conditions, if a physician's statement is submitted.
- Any other documentation which will support the case for emergency assistance.

As a general rule, up to $2,000 may be awarded to an employee during any 12-month period and $6,000 during the period of their employment with Douglas Machine. An employee may submit one application per crisis situation.

The Benevolent Fund also provides financial support for special community events directly benefiting an employee with a financial hardship. As a general rule, support for these events is in lieu of, instead of in addition to, direct assistance to the employee. Any employee may request this support on behalf of a fellow employee.

To apply for emergency assistance, or for more information, please contact Ray Frazee, Human Resource Manager, at 320.762.6222 or extension 6222.
