ARTICLE 1 - MEMBERS

Section 1. Membership. The Nicholas J. and Anna K. Bouras Foundation, Inc. (the "Corporation") shall have one (1) member (the "Member"). The Member shall be William S. Crane who shall serve as the Member until the earlier of his death, disability, or resignation. Thereafter, unless the Board of Trustees elects a person to serve as the Corporation's Member, the Corporation shall no longer have a Member and all rights, powers and obligations of the Member set forth in the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws shall vest in the Board of Trustees.

Section 2. Rights, Powers and Obligations. Except as may be otherwise mandated by the New Jersey Nonprofit Corporation Act, Title 15A of the New Jersey Statutes (the "Act"), the Member shall have the rights, powers and obligations as expressly set forth in these Bylaws or the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation. The Member shall not vote at meetings of the Board of the Corporation, but shall approve those actions of the Corporation as specified in the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws and as otherwise provided by law.

Section 3. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the Member of the Corporation shall be held at such other time as the Member may determine, to elect Trustees and to transact such other business as may come before the meeting.

Section 4. Special Meeting. Special meetings of the Member may be called by a majority of the members of the Board of the Trustees of the Corporation or by the President of the Corporation.

Section 5. Place of Meeting. All meetings of the Member shall be held at such place as the Member may from time to time determine.

A special meeting of the Member may be held on at least five (5) days advance notice by regular mail, first class postage prepaid, or at least two (2) days advance notice by telephone, facsimile (fax), electronic message or personal delivery to the Member. Such notice shall be validly delivered if a message with respect to the meeting is left at the Member's principal place of business. When a meeting is adjourned to another time or place, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the date, time and place are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, such date not to be more than ten (10) days after such meeting, and, at the adjourned meeting, only such business is transacted as might have been transacted at the original meeting. Notice of any meeting of the Member may be waived, in a manner consistent with the Act.

Section 7. Reserved Powers of Member.

(a) The Member has the power to elect the Board of Trustees of the Corporation and to approve, initiate and/or reject decisions made by the Board of Trustees of the Corporation as described in paragraph (b) of this Section. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Bylaws, decisions of the Board of Trustees of the Corporation in the areas specified in paragraph (b) shall be subject to approval or rejection by the Member as described herein and the Member may initiate actions in any of the areas specified in paragraph (b) without any action being taken by the Board of Trustees of the Corporation.

(6) To approve the annual capital and operating budgets of the Corporation, and any amendments thereto.

(7) To approve any donation or any other transfer of the Corporation's assets in excess of $25,000, unless specifically authorized in the Corporation's approved budgets.

Section 8. Voting By Member. Except as otherwise provided by statute, these Bylaws or the Certificate of Incorporation, the vote of the Member shall be sufficient to approve or initiate an action described in Section 7 of this Article I.

Section 9. Action Without A Meeting. Except to the extent otherwise provided in these Bylaws, any action required to be taken at a meeting of the Member, or any other action which may be taken at a meeting of the Member, may be taken without a meeting by written consent of the Member, in accordance with, and to the extent permitted by N.J.S.A. 15A:5-6, or any successor statute.

ARTICLE II – TRUSTEES

Section 1. Powers and Duties; Number; Term of Office. The Board of Trustees of the Corporation shall have the power to act on, and shall be responsible for the management of, all of the Corporation's activities, including the determination of appropriate corporate policies and of supporting programs and activities, and may adopt rules and regulations governing the actions of the Board of Trustees in accordance with these Bylaws. Notwithstanding Section 7 of this Article II, the number of trustees constituting the entire Board of Trustees shall be determined by a vote of the majority of the trustees then in office but shall in no case be less than three (3). The trustees named in the Certificate of Incorporation shall hold office until the first annual meeting of the Board of Trustees, and until their successors are elected and qualified. The trustees elected at each annual meeting of the Board of Trustees shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting and until their successors are elected and qualified unless otherwise removed in accordance with Section 11 of this Article II. Trustees may serve an unlimited number of terms. All trustees shall be at least eighteen (18) years old.

Section 2. Annual and Regular Meetings. The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees for the purpose of setting the number of trustees and electing trustees and officers and transacting such other business as may come before the Board of Trustees at such meeting shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be fixed by the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees may set, by resolution adopted at any meeting of the Board of Trustees, the date and time for additional regular meetings. Any annual or other regular meeting of the Board of Trustees may be held without notice (notwithstanding Section 5 of this Article II), except as to trustees not present at the time of the adoption of the resolution or if an amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws is to be considered.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Trustees, for any purpose or purposes, may be called by the President or a majority of the trustees then in office.

Section 4. Place of Meeting. All meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be held at such place as the Board of Trustees may from time to time determine.

Section 5. Notice of Meetings. Subject to Section 2 of this Article II, notice stating the date, time, place and (if an amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws is to be considered) purpose of any annual or regular meeting of the Board of Trustees shall be given no less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting, either personally, by telephone, by facsimile (fax), by electronic message or by mail, to the trustees. A special meeting of the Board of Trustees may be held on at least five (5) days advance notice by regular mail, first class postage prepaid, or at least two (2) days advance notice by telephone, facsimile (fax), electronic message or personal delivery to each trustee, such notice in either case to state the date, time, place, and purpose of the special meeting. When a meeting is adjourned to another time or place, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the date, time and place are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, such date not to be more than ten (10) days after such meeting, and, at the adjourned meeting, only such business is transacted as might have been transacted at the original meeting. Notice of any meeting of the Board of Trustees may be waived, in a manner consistent with the Act.

Section 6. Quorum. A majority of trustees then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Trustees.

Section 7. Manner of Acting. Unless otherwise required by law (e.g., with respect to real estate transactions, the sale of substantially all of the Corporation's assets, a merger of the Corporation and another entity, or the dissolution of the Corporation), any action required to be taken by the Board of Trustees shall be authorized by a majority of the trustees present at the meeting of the Board of Trustees when the action is taken. Any action required to be authorized by a vote of the Board of Trustees greater than a majority shall be rescinded or modified only by a like vote.

Section 8. Number of Votes. Each trustee shall be permitted to cast one vote on all matters on which he or she may vote.

Section 9. Action Without a Meeting. Any action required to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Trustees, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the Board of Trustees, may be taken without a meeting by unanimous written consent (including by way of electronic message) in accordance with, and to the extent permitted by, the Act. A description of any action so taken and the written consents thereto shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Trustees.

Section 10. Vacancies. Any vacancy in the Board of Trustees as a result of death, disability, resignation, removal or otherwise shall be filled by the Member and may be so filled at any meeting. Any trustee elected to fill a vacancy shall serve for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office.

Section 11. Removal and Resignation. Any trustee may be removed from the Board of Trustees with or without cause by the Member. Any trustee may resign at any time by notifying the President or Secretary of the Corporation. Any such resignation shall be in writing and shall take effect at the time therein specified and the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 12. Committees of the Board. The Board of Trustees, by resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Trustees (notwithstanding Section 7 of this Article II), may appoint from among the trustees an executive committee and one or more other committees of the Board of Trustees, each of which shall constitute a “committee” within the meaning of N.J.S.A. 15A:6-9. To the extent provided in such resolution, each such committee shall have and may exercise all the authority of the Board of Trustees, subject to the limitations on the powers of any such committee imposed by law (e.g., with respect to electing and removing trustees and officers, amending these Bylaws, and amending or repealing prior decisions of the Board of Trustees). The Board of Trustees, by resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Trustees (notwithstanding Section 7 of this Article II), may fill any vacancy on any such committee, abolish any such committee at any time, and remove any trustee from membership on any such committee at any time, with or without cause. Sections 6 through 9 and Section 14 of this Article II shall apply to committees of the Board of Trustees and their members as they do to the Board of Trustees and the trustees, respectively. Each committee of the Board of Trustees shall promptly report to the Board of Trustees, no later than at the next regular meeting of the Board of Trustees, all actions and substantive decisions taken by such committee.

Section 13. Committees of the Corporation; Board of Advisors. The Board of Trustees may establish (and abolish) from time to time committees (including possibly a Board of Advisors) that are not “committees” within the meaning of the Act and appoint to them (or remove from them) trustees and other individuals, provided that the authority to appoint and remove members of such committees may be delegated by the Board of Trustees to the President. Such committees may not act on behalf of the Board of Trustees, but may instead make recommendations to the Board of Trustees or coordinate the performance of certain tasks on behalf of the Corporation, as determined in each case by the Board of Trustees.

Section 14. Telephonic Participation at Meetings of the Board. Any or all trustees may participate in a meeting of the Board of Trustees or any committee by means of conference telephone or any means of communication by which all persons participating in the meeting are able to hear each other, or by any other means permitted by the Act. Participation at a meeting pursuant to this Section shall constitute presence in person for all purposes.

Section 15. Compensation. By resolution of the Board of Trustees, the trustees may be paid reasonable compensation for their duties as trustees. By resolution of the Board of Trustees, the trustees may be paid their actual expenses of attendance at each meeting of the Board of Trustees or its committees.

ARTICLE III – OFFICERS

Section 1. Election; Term. At each annual meeting the Board of Trustees shall elect from among the trustees a President, a Treasurer, a Secretary, and such other officers or agents as it shall deem necessary or desirable. The Board of Trustees may also appoint additional officers and agents from time to time as it shall deem necessary or desirable. One person may hold two or more offices, but no officer shall execute, acknowledge or verify any instrument in more than one capacity if the instrument is required by law or these Bylaws to be executed, acknowledged or verified by two or more officers. Officers (including the President, any Vice President, the Treasurer, and the Secretary) shall hold office until the first annual meeting after their election and until their successors are elected and qualified, subject to earlier termination by removal or resignation. Officers may serve an unlimited number of terms.

Section 2. Removal; Vacancies. Notwithstanding Section 7 of Article II, any officer elected or appointed by the Board of Trustees may be removed by a majority vote of the trustees then in office (as opposed to a majority of trustees present at a meeting of the Board of Trustees), with or without cause. Any vacancy occurring among officers, however caused, may be filled by the Board of Trustees at any meeting for the unexpired portion of the term.

Section 3. President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation and, subject to the control of the Board of Trustees, shall in general supervise all of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Unless otherwise directed by the Board of Trustees, all other officers shall be subject to the supervision of the President. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Trustees at which he or she is in attendance. The President shall have the general powers and duties usually vested in the office of the President of a corporation and such other duties as shall be assigned by the Board of Trustees. No employee of the Corporation shall serve as President.

Section 4. Vice President. The Vice President (or Vice Presidents, in the order designated or elected), if elected, shall generally assist the President and perform such other duties and possess such other powers as are incident to the office of Vice President or as shall be assigned by the President or by the Board of Trustees.

Section 5. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have charge and custody of and be responsible for all funds and securities of the Corporation, shall keep or cause to be kept regular books of account for the Corporation, shall report to the Board of Trustees at each annual meeting and at such other times as requested by the Board of Trustees on the finances of the Corporation, and shall perform such other duties and possess such other powers as are incident to the office of Treasurer or as shall be assigned by the President or by the Board of Trustees.

Section 6. Secretary. The Secretary shall cause notices of all meetings to be served as prescribed by these Bylaws or by statute, shall keep or cause to be kept the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Trustees, shall have charge of and authenticate the corporate records and the seal of the Corporation (if one is obtained) and shall keep a register of the post office and email address of each trustee (which shall be furnished to the Secretary by each trustee). The Secretary shall perform such other duties and possess such other powers as are incident to the office of Secretary or as are assigned by the President or by the Board of Trustees.

Section 8. Bonding. If required by the Board of Trustees, any officer, assistant officer or staff person of the Corporation must give a bond or other security for the faithful performance of his or her duties, in the amount and with such surety or sureties as the Board of Trustees may direct.

ARTICLE IV – INDEMNIFICATION AGAINST LIABILITIES AND EXPENSES

Section 1. Indemnification. The Corporation shall indemnify all trustees and officers of the Corporation and their successors, heirs, and legal representatives (the “Indemnitees”), to the extent permitted by law, against all expenses and liabilities, including attorneys’ fees, in connection with any proceeding involving an Indemnatee by reason of his or her being or having been a trustee or officer, other than a proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation, if (a) such Indemnatee acted in good faith in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interest of the Corporation, and (b) with respect to any criminal proceeding, such Indemnatee had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The Corporation may advance to Indemnitees expenses, including attorneys’ fees, for which such Indemnitees are indemnified pursuant to this Section.

Section 2. Definitions. All terms used herein shall have the meanings attributed to such terms as set forth in N.J.S.A. 15A:3-4.

Section 3. Scope of Indemnification. It is intended that the Indemnitees’ rights of indemnification provided hereunder shall be as broad as permitted under the laws of the State of New Jersey. Without limiting the foregoing, the Corporation herewith adopts the provisions of N.J.S.A. 15A:3-4, to the extent it relates to indemnification of officers and trustees, as though fully herein set forth. Wherever such statute permits the Corporation to provide indemnification of an Indemnatee, this Article III shall be deemed to require such indemnification to be provided by the Corporation to the Indemnatee.

Section 4. Insurance. The Corporation may provide for the indemnification of or advancement of expenses to Indemnitees, such as by purchasing directors and officers liability insurance.

ARTICLE V – CONTRACTS AND FINANCES

Section 1. Contracts. The Board of Trustees may authorize any one or more officers or agents to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the President may enter into and execute in the name of the Corporation contracts and other instruments in the regular course of the Corporation's business that are authorized, either generally or specifically, by the Board of Trustees.

Section 2. Loans. No loan shall be contracted on behalf of the Corporation and no evidence of indebtedness shall be issued in its name unless authorized by a resolution of the Board of Trustees. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances. The Corporation shall not make any loan to, or guarantee any obligation of, a trustee or officer of the Corporation, or any entity in which a trustee or officer holds a substantial Financial Interest (within the meaning of Article VII, Section 2 of these Bylaws), other than through the purchase of bonds or similar securities customarily sold in public offering or ordinary bank deposits, and other than advances permitted under Article IV, Section 1 of these Bylaws. The Corporation shall not make any loan to, or guarantee any obligation of, any employee of the Corporation unless the Board of Trustees determines that such loan or guarantee may reasonably be expected to benefit the Corporation.

Section 3. Deposits. The Board shall select, or shall direct an officer or agent to select, such banks or depositories as it (or he or she) shall deem proper for the funds of the Corporation. If any bank or depository so selected requires that the Board of Trustees adopt one or more resolutions for the purpose of opening an account at such bank or depository, such resolution or resolutions shall be deemed adopted by the Board of Trustees by virtue of its adoption of these Bylaws, and the date of adoption of such resolution or resolutions shall be the date of adoption of these Bylaws (or such later date as may be required by such bank or depository).

Section 4. Expenditures. For each fiscal year of the Corporation, the Board of Trustees may approve a budget estimating the Corporation's revenues and expenses and authorizing expenditures of the Corporation's funds. All expenditures of the Corporation's funds in excess of $50,000 shall be authorized by the Board of Trustees, either through a budget, a resolution amending a budget or otherwise. The President may authorize unbudgeted expenditures of, or increase budget allocations by, $50,000 or less without the consent of the Board of Trustees unless (a) the Board of Trustees has specifically prohibited such expenditure or allocation or (b) the President has a Financial Interest (as defined in Section 2 of Article VII) in such expenditure or allocation. All checks, drafts, and other orders for the payment of money, notes, or other evidence of indebtedness issued in the name of the Corporation shall be signed by one of the following, provided that in the case of a payment of more than $100,000 such check, draft, or other order shall be signed by two of the following: the President, the Treasurer, and the Secretary.

Section 6. Other Investments. The funds of the Corporation may be retained in whole or in part in cash or may be invested and reinvested from time to time in such property – real, personal, or otherwise – including stocks, bonds or other securities, as the Board of Trustees may deem desirable.

Section 7. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be the one year period (or a shorter period, in the case of the Corporation's first and final fiscal years) ending on December 31st each year.

ARTICLE VI – OFFICE AND BOOKS

Section 1. Office. The office of the Corporation shall be located at such place as the Board of Trustees may from time to time determine.

Section 2. Books and Records. Correct books of account of the activities and transactions of the Corporation, including a copy of the Certificate of Incorporation, a copy of these Bylaws, and all minutes of meetings and written consents of the Board of Trustees and committees of the Board of Trustees, shall be kept at or accessible in electronic form at the office of the Corporation.

Section 3. Document Retention. The Corporation shall retain documents for the durations specified on Schedule A of these Bylaws.

ARTICLE VII – CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Section 1. Purpose. This Article VII constitutes the conflict of interest policy of the Corporation. The purpose of this Article VII is to protect the interest of the Corporation when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of a trustee or officer of the Corporation or might result in a possible “excess benefit transaction” within the meaning of Section 4958 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. This Article VII is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Section 2. Definitions. For the purpose of this Article VII:

“Compensation” shall include direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

“Financial Interest” shall mean any one of the following, which a person may have, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family (including by virtue of being a “disqualified person” within the meaning of Section 4958 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended):

- a) A non-de minimis ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Corporation or any of its affiliates has a transaction or arrangement;
- b) A Compensation arrangement with the Corporation or any of its affiliates, or with any entity or individual with which the Corporation or any of its affiliates has a transaction or arrangement; or
- c) A potential non-de minimis ownership or investment interest in, or Compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Corporation or any of its affiliates is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

A Financial Interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Section 3 of this Article VII, a person who has a Financial Interest may have a conflict of interest only if the Board of Trustees or a committee of the Board of Trustees decides that a conflict of interest exists, or if such person acknowledges that a conflict of interest exists.

“Interested Person” shall mean any trustee, officer or key employee, or any person related to any of such individuals by way of business, investment or family, who has a direct or indirect Financial Interest.

Section 3. Procedures.

(a) Duty to Disclose. In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an Interested Person must disclose the existence of the Financial Interest and all related material facts, or acknowledge the existence of a conflict of interest, to the trustees considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

(b) Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists. After disclosure of the Financial Interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the Interested Person, he/she shall leave the meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest or potential excess benefit transaction is discussed and voted upon by the Board of Trustees or a committee of the Board of Trustees. The remaining members of the Board of Trustees or such committee shall determine whether a conflict of interest exists or whether the matter under consideration may be characterized as an excess benefit transaction.

(c) Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest.

(i) An Interested Person may make a presentation at a meeting of the Board of Trustees or a committee of the Board of Trustees, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest and shall not in any way attempt to influence improperly the deliberation of or voting on the matter giving rise to such possible conflict.

(ii) The President or the chairperson of the committee of the Board of Trustees shall, if appropriate, appoint one or more trustees who are not Interested Persons to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.

(iii) After exercising due diligence, the Board of Trustees or committee of the Board of Trustees shall determine whether the Corporation can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest or an excess benefit transaction.

(iv) If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the Board of Trustees or committee of the Board of Trustees shall determine by a majority vote of the remaining members of the Board of Trustees or such committee who do not have a conflict of interest whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Corporation's best interest, is for its own benefit, is fair and reasonable and does not constitute an excess benefit transaction. The Board of Trustees or such committee shall, in conformity with the above determination, determine whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

(d) Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy.

(i) If the Board of Trustees or a committee of the Board of Trustees has reasonable cause to believe a trustee or officer has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the person of the basis for such belief and afford him/her an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

(ii) If, after hearing the person's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the Board of Trustees or such committee determines the person has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Section 4. Records of Proceedings. The minutes of the Board of Trustees and all committees of the Board of Trustees shall contain (a) the names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a Financial Interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the Financial Interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the Board of Trustees' or committee of the Board of Trustees' determination whether a conflict of interest in fact existed; and (b) the names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

Section 5. Compensation. A trustee who receives Compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Corporation for services or any member of such trustee's family is precluded from voting on or participating in any Board of Trustees or committee deliberation of matters pertaining to such trustee's Compensation, but is not prohibited from providing information to the Board of Trustees or any committee regarding Compensation.

Section 6. Annual Statements. Each trustee and officer shall annually sign a statement affirming, or affirm orally at the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees, that he/she:

- a) Has received a copy of these Bylaws, including this Article VII;
- b) Has read and understands this Article VII;
- c) Has agreed to comply with the provisions of this Article VII; and
- d) Understands the Corporation is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities that accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

In addition, each trustee, at the time of his/her initial election or appointment to the Board of Trustees and annually thereafter, shall submit to the President and the Secretary a written statement identifying, to the best of such trustee's knowledge, (x) any entity of which such trustee is an officer, director, trustee, member, owner (other than by virtue of holding a de minimis equity interest) or employee and with which the Corporation has a relationship and (y) any direct or indirect Financial Interest of such trustee with respect to any transaction in which the Corporation is a participant.

Section 7. Periodic Reviews. To ensure the Corporation operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic reviews may be conducted. The periodic reviews may include the following subjects: (a) whether Compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information (where available), and the result of arm's length bargaining; and (b) whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to the Corporation's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes, and do not result in private inurement, impermissible private benefits, or an excess benefit transaction.

Section 8. Use of Outside Experts. When conducting the periodic reviews as provided for in Section 7 of this Article VII, the Corporation may, but need not, use outside advisors. If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the Board of Trustees of its responsibility for ensuring that periodic reviews are conducted.

ARTICLE VIII – COMPENSATION

Section 1. General. This Article VIII constitutes the compensation policy of the Corporation. The Corporation may pay reasonable Compensation to its officers, employees, agents, and independent contractors, provided that the requirements of Article VII and this Article VIII are followed when considering and approving Compensation for such individuals. This Article VIII is intended to create a presumption that all Compensation Arrangements are reasonable, as provided in Treasury Regulations Section 53.4958-6, and shall be applied accordingly.

Section 2. Definitions. For the purpose of this Article VIII:

“Compensation” shall mean salary, wages, deferred compensation, retirement benefits (including pensions and annuities, whether in the form of a qualified or non-qualified employee plan), fringe benefits (including personal vehicle, meals, lodging, personal and family educational benefits, low interest loans, payment of personal travel, entertainment, or other expenses, athletic or country club membership, and personal use of the Corporation’s property), and bonuses.

“Compensation Arrangement” shall mean Compensation paid to any officer, employee, agent, or independent contractor of the Corporation, provided such person receives more than $100,000 per year from the Corporation.

Section 3. Required Approval. All Compensation Arrangements entered into by the Corporation and all other proposals for providing Compensation to or increasing the Compensation of officers shall be reviewed and adopted by a majority of the total number of trustees in office and eligible to vote on the matter, subject to the requirements of Article VIII.

Section 4. Procedure. In reviewing a Compensation Arrangement, the Board of Trustees shall collect, through its trustees, officers, committees, employees, or agents, information about Compensation paid by similarly situated taxable or tax-exempt organizations for similar services, current compensation surveys compiled by independent firms, or actual written offers from similarly situated organizations. Trustees shall base their decisions on whether to approve a proposed Compensation Arrangement on such collected information.

Section 5. Documentation. The Secretary shall document in writing (a) the date and terms of approved Compensation Arrangements; (b) the decision made by each trustee who decided or voted on approved Compensation Arrangements; and (c) the information on which the Board of Trustees relied to approve a Compensation Arrangement, and the source of that information.

ARTICLE IX – CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION AND BYLAWS

Section 1. Force and Effect. These Bylaws are subject to the provisions of the Act and the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation, as they may be amended from time to time (in the case of the Certificate of Incorporation, by the Member). If any provision of these Bylaws is inconsistent with a provision of the Act or the Certificate of Incorporation, the provisions of the Act or the Certificate of Incorporation shall govern to the extent of such inconsistency.

Section 2. Amendment. The Member may amend, alter or repeal these Bylaws. The Board of Trustees may propose to amend, alter or repeal these Bylaws, except that any such action shall not become effective unless and until approved by the Member.

I certify that the above Articles constitute the current Bylaws of Nicholas J. and Anna K. Bouras Foundation, Inc., a New Jersey nonprofit corporation, and were duly adopted as such on February 17, 2014.
