The International Association of Fire Chiefs Foundation, Inc. (IAFC) provides scholarships ranging from $500 to $2,000 to men and women interested in pursuing a careers as a First Responder. The scholarship provided by the IAFC provides the individuals assistance toward the cost of tuition. The IAFC recognizes the increasingly complex world First Responders operate in. Science, technology, communications and policy are constantly and rapidly changing and evolving. The IAFC Foundation helps ensure that our men and women are fully prepared to meet these challenges by providing increased opportunities to support their educational needs. Applicants must complete and application form and submit a 250 word essay outlining their reasons for applying for assistance and explaining why the desired course of study will be helpful. Amount of scholarship is based on experience, nature of course of study and cost of tuition.

The IAFC attempts to provide some level of support to all applicants that meet the criteria.
