part vi, section b, line 15	compensation Each year the president's compensation is determined by the Board of Directors Compensation Committee, which is made up of three independent directors. These directors do not have a conflict of interest as compensation committee members. The committee reviews comparable pay scales for CEOs of numerous other major comparable non-profit organizations. This information is obtained from Form 990's for the respective organizations via Guidestar and salaries as reported in public information on other websites. The Committee also considers the president's exclusive and fulltime commitment to Young America's Foundation, his over 35 years experience as a foundation executive and OVER 30 YEARS AS AN attorney, his contacts in the conservative community, and the hours he works as additional factors in setting his salary and benefits. Contemporaneous substantiation of the compensation committee's 2013 discussion and decision is maintained as part of the corporate records. Additionally, the president reviews employee performance and experience in setting the compensation for the remainder of the Foundation's staff.
