The Winhall Industrial Society is a 501C3 organization, acquired on September 23, 1999, consisting of all volunteers. We operate as a local non-profit organization committed to hosting an annual agricultural country fair for the surrounding areas. This fair, The Bondville Fair, is a 3 day event which focus' on building and fostering community, providing a family friendly experience, hosting numerous animal, agricultural, and historical exhibits. Each year our organization strives to give back to the communities in southern Vermont through donations made to various organizations. Over the past several years thousands of dollars have been disbursed through college scholarships awarded to local high school graduates. Local organizations benefit from monetary donations including fire departments, a local hospital, ambulatory/emergency services, neighborhood assistance programs and more. Touting a historical title of "The oldest continuous fair in the State of Vermont" 2014 marking out 217th year. We pride ourselves in tradition and commitment to a family fun event. Our grounds are also available to the community for gatherings, weddings, and reunions.
