Part III, 4.d Other Program Services

Youth Development Programs Striders provide a youth running program located in four sites (cities) throughout the South Hampton Roads region that includes volunteer coaches who are background-checked. All youth and coaches are provided uniforms as well as equipment and training materials. Club also provides "camperships" which enable area youth runners to attend running camps over the summer. Club also provides scholarships for area runners based on academic & athletic performance and community service. 2013 awards went to ten student-athletes which ranged from $1,000 - $3,000 and totaled $19,000.

Part VI, A.9 Office. Tidewater Striders do not maintain an office; mailing address is the home of the Treasurer. Any correspondence received is forwarded or brought to the next meeting depending on when received during the month. Very little is received as most information moves to and between board members electronically. Email addresses & phone numbers for all Board Members published monthly in newsletter.

Part VI, B.11.b Tidewater Striders 990 with all schedules is forwarded to Board Members and discussed at a meeting prior to being filed. The 990 is on the agenda and board members are asked to review it in advance of the meeting asking questions directly in advance or at the board meeting.

Part VI, B.12.c Tidewater Striders has a conflict of interest policy which requires each board member to publicly indicate their potential involvement with any conflicting organization on forms that are filed within the club annually. Detailed financial reports including vendor detail is provided to the board monthly for self and mutual monitoring.

Part VI, C.19 Tidewater Striders has its governing documents, which includes constitution, bylaws and extensive policies & procedures, all available on the club's website. Financial statements are published on the club's website.
