Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Foundation follows accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America related to the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which sets a minimum threshold for financial statement recognition of the benefit of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The Foundation reviewed the tax positions taken for the open tax years as of December 31, 2013, and determined that no provision for uncertain tax positions is required. The Foundation's informational tax returns for year subsequent to the year 2009 are open, by statute, for review by authorities.

Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	A designated committee reviews requests for grants to determine if a candidate meets the specific requirements. After reviewing the applications, the committee determines the award winners and the amount of each grant. The Board of directors notifies the grantees of their award. The award winners attend the ISDS annual session where formal grant checks are issued. Scholarship applications received by the deadline are reviewed by the Scholarship Committee. Each application is scored according to scoring guidelines. Using the scoring results, both written and verbal correspondence, awardees are determined. Scholarship winners are notified of their selection and invited to attend the ISDS annual session to be recognized.
