Form 990, 990 schedule A, 990 schedule O and yearly income summary with check register and expense summary forms are mailed to each member of the executive council prior to filing. A vote is called for and taken to approve via e mail, as we are spread across the country and have international blard members. At the yearly summer meeting hard copies are districuted to all executive council members, the year is reviewed, and copies are available to all members.

A portion of investment income is to satisfy government expectations and regulations regarding funding lifetime memberships.

Documents of the Lepidopterists' Society are kept with the treasurer, Kelly Richers, for seven years. Older documents are available at the McGuire Center, University of Florida, under the direction of Charles Covell in the Society archives.

Accounts receivable are unpaid page charges from 2013 which have been billed but not collected as of the completion of this tax year.
