The mission of the Meritus Medical Center Auxiliary is to cooperate and assist in the work of the Meritus Medical Center, promote the Hospital's work in the community, supplement the work of the medical staff, nursing staff, administrative staff and other hospital personnel in making the patient's stay in the hospital more comfortable and pleasant; and raising money for charitable and educational distributions and for the benefit of new hospital equipment, building projects and programs.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 6 - Explanation of Classes of Members or Shareholder

Most of the organization's members are retired individuals. The majority of the members are women. They come from a variety of backgrounds including nursing, teaching, engineering, banking, accounting, sales and administrative positions. All of the members are volunteers in service positions at Meritus Medical Center, as well as elected or appointed leaders of the Auxiliary.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 7a - How Members or Shareholders Elect Governing Body

The President of the Auxiliary and the Executive Board appoints a nominating committee every two years to get candidates for upcoming open offices. The slate is then presented at a required general meeting of the members for a vote. The Auxiliary president, with the guidance of the Director of Volunteer Services, may appoint volunteers to chair specific fundraising events. Per the Auxiliary bylaws, the Board of Directors is required to meet monthly and hold at least one general meeting of the membership each year. At least fifteen members must be in attendance to vote on any business transactions. Regular board meetings are conducted by following parliamentary procedures. A parliamentarian is an appointed member of the board. At each meeting the previous minutes are corrected and approved. The treasurer reports on the financial statements for the preceding month. The Director of Volunteer Services, who is a Meritus Medical Center employee, sits in on the meetings to provide guidance and advice. The Director of Volunteer Services is not a member and has no vote on the business proceedings. The senior management and various executives of MMC are invited to the meetings each month.

Special committees may be appointed by the president of the Auxiliary to carry out certain work and then are discharged when the work is completed. Standing committees include the following:

(1) Fundraising committees include the Tree of Lights, annual bazaar, baby photos, art in the hallway, raffle, book fair, uniform sale, bag sale and jewelry sale. Fundraising committees usually consist of an appointed chairperson and volunteers. These committees give reports to the board either monthly or quarterly depending on activity.

(2) The Finance committee prepares the budget for presentation and approval by the executive board. This committee works with the MMC's Finance and Business Integrity departments for oversight. The committee meets at least twice each year and reports activity to the board.
