EXHIBIT E

Procedure for Awarding Scholarships and Other Educational Grants to Individuals

Schedule H, Item 1

As noted in Exhibit C, The E.A. & Frances Reichart Foundation, Inc. (the "Foundation"), plans to make grants to individuals for study and similar purposes. The exact scope of this portion of the Foundation's grant making program has not and will not be finalized until after the Foundation's directors have had the opportunity to consider and to discuss specific issues in greater depth. The Foundation's individual grant making program will be conducted pursuant to the objective and nondiscriminatory criteria set forth in this Exhibit E.

The Foundation desires to have this procedure approved in advance by the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS"). The procedure proposed by the Foundation for making scholarship and other educational grants to individuals is as follows:

Items 1a and 1b. Types, Purpose, and Amount of Grants. Every grant awarded under this procedure will be either a scholarship under Section 4945(g)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), used to pay all or a part of a recipient's expenses incurred in attending an educational institution described in Code section 170(b)(1)(A)(ii), or a grant under Code section 4945(g)(3) used to achieve a specific objective or to enhance a recipient's capacities or skills. The Foundation has not yet determined the amounts of its scholarships and other educational grants, but such amounts will be established pursuant to the guidelines set forth below in the Foundation's response to Item 4c.

Item 1c. Educational Loans. The Foundation will not make any educational loans.

Items 1d and 1e. Publicity, Solicitations, and Announcements. The Foundation may publicize the availability of scholarships and other educational grants through direct and indirect contacts with the general public. In particular, scholarships and other educational grants may be publicized through various charitable and educational organizations that work with and provide services to youth and other worthy individuals in the United States and abroad. Scholarships and other educational grants also may be publicized through the financial aid officers of particular educational institutions. The Foundation may expand its publicity efforts as appropriate. No solicitations or announcements have been developed at this time.

DRAFT

Item 1f. Applications for Scholarships and Other Educational Grants. The Foundation has not yet developed applications for scholarships and other educational grants. In the future, however, the Foundation may use applications that include some or all of the following:

- A transcript of prior academic, musical, literary, and/or other achievements, depending on the type of scholarship or other educational grant to be awarded.
- A report of performance on tests designed to measure ability and aptitude.
- A description of financial need.
- An essay written by the applicant describing the applicant's interests and aspirations.
- A description of past involvement in extracurricular activities.
- A list of past honors and recognitions.
- Written recommendations by individuals not related to the applicant.
- The names of the educational institutions to which the applicant intends to apply.

Schedule H, Item 2

The Foundation will retain written records pertaining to all grants awarded under this procedure, including the following:

- All information used to evaluate the qualifications of potential recipients.
- Identification of each recipient (including any relationship of the recipient to the Foundation sufficient to make the recipient a disqualified person of the Foundation within the meaning of Code section 4946(a)(1)).
- Specification of the amount and purpose of each scholarship or other educational grant.
- The reports and other follow-up information obtained under this procedure.

The E.A. & Frances Reichart Foundation, Inc. Federal EIN: 26-0533447

Schedule H, Items 3 and 7

The selection of recipients will be on an objective and nondiscriminatory basis. The Foundation anticipates that scholarships and other educational grants will be made only to worthy individuals to enable them to attend educational institutions, achieve a specific objective, or enhance recipients' capacities or skills. No disqualified person with respect to the Foundation will be eligible for consideration. Donors to the Foundation will not be allowed to designate scholarship recipients or other educational grantees.

Members of the group making the selection (the "Selection Committee"), spouses and dependents of members of the Selection Committee, and all other disqualified persons with respect to the Foundation will be (a) ineligible to receive a scholarship or other educational grant and (b) prohibited from deriving any private benefit, directly or indirectly, by the selection of one or more particular grant recipients.

Schedule H, Item 4

Item 4a. Selection from Within Group of Potential Recipients. The Foundation will use objective and nondiscriminatory selection criteria that are reasonably related to the purposes of the scholarships other educational grants. Criteria may include, but will not be limited to, prior academic performance; performance on tests or auditions designed to measure ability and aptitude for undergraduate or graduate work; recommendations from educators, social workers, and others not related to the potential recipient; financial need; and the conclusions that the Selection Committee might draw from personal interviews as to the applicant's motivations, character, ability, and potential. Factors that are not reasonably related to the purposes of the scholarship or educational grant, such as race, gender, or the employment status of a prospective recipient (or his or her relatives), will not be considered and will have no influence on the selection of recipients. When appropriate, applicants will be interviewed by the Selection Committee in person or by telephone.

Item 4b. Number of Annual Scholarships and Other Educational Grants. The number of annual scholarships and other educational grants made by the Foundation under this procedure will be dependent upon the Foundation's resources and other programs. The Foundation estimates that its individual grant making activities will be only a part of its overall charitable and educational program (albeit a substantial part) and, therefore, expects to make fewer than 10 annual scholarships and other educational grants (at least in the first few years of the program).

Item 4c. Amount of Annual Scholarships and Other Educational Grants.

(i) With respect to scholarships awarded for regular study at an educational institution described in Code section 170(b)(1)(A)(ii) (i.e., scholarships described in Code section 4945(g)(1)), each scholarship will be awarded by the Selection Committee in an amount determined by it, not to exceed the anticipated cost of the recipient's tuition, board, room, fees, books, supplies, travel costs, and incidental expenses for his or her attendance at such educational institution.

(ii) With respect to scholarships and other educational grants used to achieve a specific objective or to enhance recipients' capacities or skills (i.e., scholarships and other educational grants described in Code section 4945(g)(3)), each such scholarship or other educational grant will be awarded by the Selection Committee for a specified period (usually two years or less), and the amount of such a scholarship or educational grant will not exceed the anticipated cost of the particular educational activity designed to achieve a specific objective or to enhance the recipient's capacities or skills.

Item 4d. Requirements or Conditions for Obtaining and Maintaining Scholarships and Other Educational Grants.

(i) With respect to scholarships awarded for regular study at an educational institution described in Code section 170(b)(1)(A)(ii) (i.e., scholarships described in Code section 4945(g)(1)), each such scholarship generally will continue for the designated term of the scholarship during the recipient's course of study at such institution, so long as the recipient maintains satisfactory progress toward completion of his or her course of study and otherwise conforms to the terms and conditions of this procedure. In any event, each such scholarship will continue only so long as it constitutes a scholarship or fellowship grant described in Code section 117(a) (as in effect on the day before the enactment of the Tax Reform Act of 1986). The Foundation may limit some or all of such scholarships to students pursuing musical or other artistic studies at an institution of higher education, but it also may award general educational scholarships that are not conditioned on a recipient choosing a particular course of study.

(ii) With respect to scholarships and other educational grants used to achieve a specific objective or to enhance recipients' capacities or skills (i.e., scholarships and other educational grants described in Code section 4945(g)(3)), the Foundation will use the supervision procedures described below to ensure that recipients use such scholarships and other educational grants only for the purpose of developing fully and productively their exceptional talents.

Schedule H, Item 5

Procedures for Supervising Scholarships Described in Code section 4945(g)(1). The Foundation may make payments directly to educational institutions described in Code section 170(b)(1)(A)(ii). In certain other instances, the Foundation may make payments directly to the recipient, subject to the supervision and investigation requirements set forth herein.

- With respect to a scholarship under Code section 4945(g)(1) paid on behalf of a recipient to an educational institution described in Code section 170(b)(1)(A)(ii), the Foundation proposes to supervise, investigate, and review scholarships by complying with the requirements of Treasury Regulations section 53.4945-4(c)(5). Each institution to which such scholarships are paid will be required to agree to use funds from a scholarship to defray a recipient's expenses or to pay the funds (or a portion of them) to a recipient only if the recipient is enrolled at such institution and the recipient's standing at it is consistent with the purposes and conditions of the scholarship.

DRAFT

- With respect to a scholarship under Code section 4945(g)(1) paid directly to a recipient for study at an educational institution described in Code section 170(b)(1)(A)(ii), the Foundation will ensure that it receives at least once a year a report, verified by the educational institution attended by the recipient, that sets forth the recipient's courses taken and grades received in each academic period. In the case of a recipient whose study at an educational institution does not involve the taking of courses but only the preparation of research papers or projects, such as the writing of a doctoral dissertation, the Foundation shall ensure that it receives at least once each year a brief report, approved by the faculty member supervising the recipient or by another appropriate university official, regarding the progress of the recipient's paper or project. Upon the completion of a recipient's study at the educational institution, the Foundation also will obtain a final report describing the recipient's accomplishment with respect to the scholarship and accounting for the funds received under such scholarship.

- With respect to a scholarship under Code section 4945(g)(1) paid directly to a recipient for study at an educational institution described in Code section 170(b)(1)(A)(ii), the Foundation will observe the following procedures for the investigation of suspected diversion of funds from their proper purposes and for the recovery of diverted funds:

  - When the reports submitted under this paragraph, including the failure to submit the reports, indicate that all or part of the scholarship is not being used in furtherance of the purposes of the scholarship, the Selection Committee will investigate the matter immediately. While conducting an investigation of a recipient, the Foundation will withhold further payments until any delinquent reports required under this procedure have been submitted.

  - If the Foundation determines that all or any part of a scholarship has been used for improper purposes and a recipient previously has not diverted funds, the Foundation will take all reasonable and appropriate steps either to recover the funds or to ensure the restoration of the diverted funds and the dedication of other scholarship funds held by the recipient to the proper purposes. Furthermore, the Foundation will withhold any further payments to the recipient until it has received the recipient's written assurance that further diversions will not occur and has required the recipient to take extraordinary precautions to prevent future diversions from occurring.

- In cases where a recipient previously has diverted funds received from the Foundation, and the Foundation determines that any part of a scholarship again has been used for improper purposes, the Foundation will take all reasonable and appropriate steps to recover the funds or to ensure the restoration of the funds and the dedication of other scholarship funds held by the recipient to their proper purposes. Moreover, the Foundation will withhold further payments until these conditions are met: (i) the funds are in fact so recovered or restored; (ii) the Foundation has received the recipient's written assurance that future diversions will not occur; and (iii) the Foundation requires the recipient to take extraordinary precautions to prevent future diversions from occurring.

- As used in this paragraph, the phrase "all reasonable and appropriate steps" includes legal action where appropriate, but need not include legal action if such action would in all probability not result in the satisfaction of execution on a judgment.

Procedures for Supervising Scholarships and Other Educational Grants Described in Code section 4945(g)(3). Each recipient will be required to make a written report to the Foundation at least once a year describing the use of the funds and the recipient's progress toward achieving the purposes for which the scholarship or other educational grant was made. Upon the completion of the undertaking for which the scholarship or other educational grant was made, the recipient will be required to make a final report describing the recipient's accomplishments with respect to the scholarship or other educational grant and accounting for the funds received under such scholarship or other educational grant. The Foundation will observe the following procedures for the investigation of suspected diversion of funds from their proper purposes and for the recovery of diverted funds:

- When the reports submitted under this paragraph, including the failure to submit the reports, indicate that all or part of the scholarship or educational grant is not being used in furtherance of the purposes of the scholarship or educational grant, the Selection Committee will investigate the matter immediately. While conducting an investigation of a recipient, the Foundation will withhold further payments until any delinquent reports required under this procedure have been submitted.

- If the Foundation determines that all or any part of a scholarship or educational grant has been used for improper purposes and a recipient previously has not diverted funds, the Foundation will take all reasonable and appropriate steps either to recover the funds or to ensure the restoration of the diverted funds and the dedication of other scholarship or educational grant funds held by the recipient to the proper purposes. Furthermore, the Foundation will withhold any further payments to the recipient until it has received the recipient's written assurance that further diversions will not occur and has required the recipient to take extraordinary precautions to prevent future diversions from occurring.

Moreover, the Foundation will withhold further payments until these conditions are met: (i) the funds are in fact so recovered or restored; (ii) the Foundation has received the recipient's written assurance that future diversions will not occur; and (iii) the Foundation requires the recipient to take extraordinary precautions to prevent future diversions from occurring.

- As used in this paragraph, the phrase "all reasonable and appropriate steps" includes legal action where appropriate, but need not include legal action if such action would in all probability not result in the satisfaction of execution on a judgment.

Schedule H, Item 6

The Selection Committee, once constituted, will consist of some or all of the members of the Foundation's Board of Directors, or other persons appointed or designated by the Foundation's Board of Directors who have demonstrated an interest in assisting individuals in furthering their education. The Foundation has not yet named Selection Committee members or determined methods for replacing such members.

Conclusion

The Foundation believes that the procedure set forth above, by which the Foundation proposes to make scholarships and other educational grants to individuals for study and similar purposes, satisfies the requirements of Code section 4945(g). The Foundation, therefore, requests IRS approval of the procedure.
