Return Reference	Explanation
Part X FIN48 Footnote	The Coalition is exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code. Income from nonexempt functions is subject to income taxes to the extent that the revenue exceeds related costs. No material amount of net unrelated business taxes was due by the Coalition at December 31, 2013. In addition, the Internal Revenue Service has determined the Coalition is not a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a)(2). The Coalition follows the accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the Coalition may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes also addresses de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, and accounting in interim periods. Management evaluated Coalitions tax positions and concluded that the Coalition had taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements to comply with the provisions of this guidance. Currently, the tax years open and subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service are 2010, 2011, and 2012 tax years.
