Funding Application Instructions

Unsolicited proposals are not being considered at this time.

General Guidelines

Grants are made to institutions and organizations that qualify as public charities under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3). Although we will consider all grants, preference will be given to specific projects and programs whose results can be evaluated. Multi-year grant requests are discouraged.

Application Guidelines

Please complete the attached form and include (i) a copy of the organization's IRS determination letter evidencing status as a Section 501(c)(3) organization and (ii) a copy of the organization's most recent financial statement. If the request is for funding of a specific project or program, please include a financial plan that includes the total anticipated expenses and the status of fundraising to date.

Review of Application

Applications will be accepted at any time and will be reviewed twice each year. Proposals should be submitted by April 1 and October 1. Applicants will receive a notice in writing of the Foundation's decision. If the request is approved, the notice will specify how and when the organization will receive the funds.

Accountability

A report of the use of funds designated for a specific project or program must be sent to the Moore Foundation within one year of the date the grant is received.

Completed applications should be mailed to
