eGlobal Family is a nonprofit that links orphaned and vulnerable children in developing countries with compassionate and responsible supporters. Primarily our support is through our email foster parent program through which children receive emotional and financial support. We work with established orphanages and community centers to provide additional food, clothing, education and health needs. Our programs include: 1) eFoster Parent Program, which provides support to approximately 165 orphaned and vulnerable children through sponsorship of donors, and helps to provide services to approximately 200 other children not directly sponsored by individuals. The program funds provide English and computer teachers for the children, and helps with school supplies, personal, and other basic needs; 2) Advanced Education Program, which in 2013 supported approximately 50 children and young adults in higher education or vocational programs; and 3) Health Program, which provides healthier meals for the children, vaccinations, emergency care, and other health-related services.
