990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Supplemental information (Part V, Other)	Accountability / Monitoring use of grants Life Impact International (Life Impact) granted funds to Life Impact Thailand Foundation (the Foundation), a foreign exempt organization that was formed to be able to operate in Thailand. The Foundation is not a subsidiary of Life Impact, however the CEO of Life Impact sits on the board of the Foundation. The other board members of the Foundation are Thai nationals who have a history of working with Life Impact and its CEO. In 2013, Life Impact made cash and property grants to the Foundation for the purpose of carrying out the programs in Thailand which accomplish Life Impact's mission. Life Impact exercises close oversight and supervision of the assets and monetary funds granted to the Foundation. The CEO of Life Impact resides in Thailand. She approves all budgets and requests for operating funds submitted by the supervisors of the charitable projects and activities being conducted by the Foundation in Thailand. The CEO then observes and monitors the use of the funds, as she is regularly involved in the daily overseas operations. Funds are granted based on approved budget requests. The Thai staff are required to spend according to their approved budgets and to turn in receipts at the end of each month. The receipts are reviewed by a staff accountant on site. The CEO receives regular reports from the accountant. The CEO is based in the Thailand office and visits the various homes several times a week and other project locations several times per month. She also visits the children's home in Myanmar at least twice a year, with other Life Impact staff members visiting the Myanmar site every three months or more. The Life Impact accountant residing in the U.S. also visits the overseas operations at least annually to provide oversight and collect reports. And several Life Impact board members also visit the foreign project sites once or twice a year. Another Life Impact board member with extensive construction expertise is directly involved with construction projects overseas, overseeing their planning and execution.
