| Part X, Line 2   | The Organization is exempt from federal income tax as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and from state income tax pursuant to Florida law. The Organization is further classified as a public charity and not a private foundation for federal tax purposes. The Organization has not incurred any unrelated business income tax. As a result, no income tax provision or liability has been provided for in the Organization's financial statements. The Organization has not taken any material uncertain tax positions for which the associated tax benefits may not be recognized under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Federal and state tax authorities may generally examine the Organization's income tax positions or (if applicable) returns for periods of approximately three to six years. |

| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c | The Organization's conflict of interest policy is distributed to each member of the Organization's governing body, its officers, and its key employees on an annual basis. Each such individual provides an annual disclosure statement indicating that they have received, read, understood and agreed to comply with the policy, and certifying that (1) they have no relationships or interests that present a conflict of interest, (2) they have one or more conflicts of interest that have been fully disclosed as required by the policy and have been properly administered in conformity with the policy, or (3) they have previously undisclosed conflicts of interest and disclosing the details of such conflicts. Any disclosure statement with previously undisclosed conflicts of interest are forwarded to appropriate Organization officials to take appropriate actions as required by the policy.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15  | An independent compensation committee established by the Board of Directors and consisting of individuals who do not have a conflict of interest (as defined in Treas. Reg. 53.4958-6) with respect to the compensation arrangement being considered annually reviews and approves the compensation level of the Organization's President. The deliberations and decisions of the committee are contemporaneously substantiated, and the committee utilizes comparability data in its deliberations (with updated data generally obtained every two to three years). The Organization's President reviews and approves the compensation level of all other disqualified persons, including the Organization's officers, directors and key employees, with whom the President does not have a conflict of interest (as defined in Treas. Reg. 53.4958-6). The deliberations and decisions of the President are contemporaneously substantiated, and the President utilizes comparability data in his deliberations (with updated data generally obtained every two to three years). In the event that the President has a conflict of interest with respect to any disqualified person for whom compensation is being set, the independent compensation committee established by the Board of Directors annually reviews and approves the compensation levels of such individuals using the same procedures outlined above. |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19  | The Organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Form 990, Part XII, Line 2c            | The Organization's Board of Directors, or a committee thereof, assumes responsibility for the oversight of the audit, of its financial statements, and the selection of an independent accountant. This process has not changed from the prior year.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
