| Return Reference                           | Explanation   |
|--|---|
| Form 990, Part I, Line 1 & Part III line 1 | The Tiwahe Foundation is a resource for giving and strengthens American Indian communities by building capacity through leadership, culture, values and vision. The Tiwahe Foundation is a living legacy that honors and champions American Indian families, traditions, spirituality, and through giving, fosters leadership and improves lives for present and future generations. Through our grant making to the American Indian community we have an impact in a variety of social and economic needs with a focus on 1) Educational attainment, 2) Economic Stability, 3) Renewing cultural connections and be of service to the community. These grants provide opportunities to advance racial and economic equity for families with measurable impacts for the entire community. The Tiwahe Foundation is leading the Native Leadership Alumni Collaborative to build and connect Alumni leaders that have participated across various leadership programs. The collaboration hopes to build a network and bridge between both rural, tribal and urban American Indian leadership Alumni that will bring cross collaboration, innovation, healthy communities and sustainable change. As a new organization the Tiwahe Foundation continues to build its organizational capacity and the endowment with a goal of $6 million in endowment assets by 2017. |
