Spiritually and Socially Youth Ministry We're involved in youth ministry because there is no more important mission than helping our children to come to know Jesus, supporting them as they progress from one stage of maturity to another, preparing them to live lives of faith and service through Jesus Christ We reach 200 kids per week through this ministry Camps Each year, we send hundreds of kids to our camps Many have never had the opportunity to go to camp or get away from their challenging environment It's vital to reach them now, before they become hardened to sin or victims of violence Camps are an opportunity to encounter Christ, build relationships and demonstrate a different way to live, in addition to having fun 250 kids attended our camps this year Comunidad Gracia God recently led us to plant a new church, a different type of church the "church in action " Comunidad Gracia is not seen as a place to come and stay within its four walls It is a base of operation for moving out into community 200 disciples of the church form the basis of the volunteers for all of our work at Love At Work Ministries When we build houses, church people are the ones building the houses, not hired staff Church members are involved in the education programs, the school, our ministries in nutrition and health care, and with the youth

(Code) (Expenses $ 265,121 including grants of $ 166,818) (Revenue $ 0)

Mentally Scholarship Program A good education is the single most important predictor of whether a child continues to live in poverty or not In 2006, we started a scholarship program for kids who would otherwise never have an opportunity to attend a private Christian school The criteria were geared toward kids living in low socio-economic situations but who possess superior academic skills kids who will lead - in unhealthy ways (gangs, prostitution rings, drug cartels) or, if we can capture their hearts and help them see how much good can be done, how much better life can be, they will lead in other ways - as teachers, doctors, presidents, pastors, business and community leaders Currently there are 33 students in our scholarship program, from Pre-K through university Technology Center Our unique program incorporates a multitude of opportunities and services that most of the world's poorest children will simply never see This includes a new Technology Center, where we are able to offer our students the latest technology, labs, access to the Internet and other resources This is a place where they come to study, receive tutoring tailored to their needs, and be guided in Christian values A New School We made preparations to launch a new school in 2014 that will provide an alternative to families desperate for hope in neighborhoods rife with crime and decay It will be socio-economically balanced, with 25-50% of the students from low income families and the rest from families who can pay families who share a vision for solid teaching, a safe environment, and the opportunity for spiritual expression that will generate a better future for students, parents and the community It is a caring place where kids are taught to think, to explore, to ask questions, to develop a love for learning and experience the love of Jesus Christ We anticipate enrollment of 65-70 students in 2014 and 125 in 2015 It includes Day Care through High School
