Part III, 4d - EMERGENCY FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE - PROVIDING FUNDS FOR ASSISTING NEEDY WOMEN WITH RENT, UTILITIES, AND

FOOD.

Part VI Section B 11b - A copy of the financial statement, The final 2012 audit report, and IRS regulations were reviewed with the financial committee, which consists of the Board President, Treasurer, and Secretary. The board president reported the results of the audit to the full board at our February 2013 meeting prior to the completion of the Form 990 by a third party

12c - On a semi annual basis the directors, staff, consultants, and volunteers are required to attend organizational training. At these training sessions, the board of directors and legal counsel present our policies and procedures, which includes our fiduciary statement of responsibility, conflict of interest policy, mandatory reporting, confidentiality statements, technology statement, fundraising policies and procedures

15b - All staff and consultants are required to conduct a background screening and drug screening (for programs involving children under 18 and federally funded programs). Following prior employment reference checks and interviews, applicants are reviewed by the executive board committee and then the full board. On hire the executive director will orientate the candidate including the policy and procedures, policy statements, holiday schedules, operating schedules, and program vision and objectives. The candidate's progress is reviewed by the board of directors at our quarterly meetings. Candidates are required to provide monthly and quarterly reports to the executive director who subsequently reports to the whole board on a quarterly basis.

19 - The organization made its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public during the tax year. These documents are available at our primary address located at 2527 Atlas Road once the website is launched the documents will be available on the website
