Independent Auditor's Report

Board of Directors
Bruce T. Halle Assistance Fund
Scottsdale, Arizona

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Bruce T. Halle Assistance Fund (the "Organization") which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2013 and 2012, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Bruce T. Halle Assistance Fund as of December 31, 2013 and 2012, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Bruce T. Halle Assistance Fund

1. Description of Organization

Bruce T. Halle Assistance Fund (the "Organization") is a not-for-profit Arizona organization, which was incorporated in December 2009. The Organization was established to provide basic assistance to employees of Discount Tire, America's Tire and Discount Tire Direct ("DT") who incur extraordinary expenses, damages or losses as a result of disasters or other emergency hardship situations. The Organization's primary purpose of business is to care for and provide employees of DT with confidential relief during unforeseen hardships, by raising awareness and promoting contributions to the Organization.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Financial Statement Presentation

The classification of a not-for-profit organization's net assets and its support, revenue and expenses is based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. It requires that the amounts for each of three classes of net assets, permanently restricted, temporarily restricted, and unrestricted, be displayed in a statement of financial position and that the amounts of change in each of those classes of net assets be displayed in a statement of activities.

These classes are defined as follows:

Permanently Restricted

Net assets resulting from contributions and other inflows of assets whose use by the Organization is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that neither expire by passage of time nor can be fulfilled or otherwise removed by actions of the Organization. There were no permanently restricted net assets as of December 31, 2013 and 2012.

Temporarily Restricted

Net assets resulting from contributions and other inflows of assets whose use by the Organization is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that either expire by passage of time or can be fulfilled and removed by actions of the Organization pursuant to those stipulations. There were no temporarily restricted net assets as of December 31, 2013 and 2012.

Unrestricted

The part of net assets that is neither permanently nor temporarily restricted by donor-imposed stipulations. Net assets were all unrestricted as of December 31, 2013 and 2012.

Bruce T. Halle Assistance Fund

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2013 and 2012

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Organization considers all highly liquid instruments available for current use, with an original maturity of three months or less, to be cash equivalents.

Contributions Receivable

The Organization records contributions receivable for those funds that have been collected by DT but not yet remitted to the Organization as of year-end. Total contributions receivable were $9,416 and $52,975 as of December 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively.

Investments

Investments in equity securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are reported at their fair values in the statements of financial position. Unrealized gains and losses are included in the change in net assets. Investment income and gains restricted by a donor are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets if the restrictions are met (either by passage of time or by use) in the reporting period in which the income and gains are recognized. Investment income is recognized when received and consists of interest, dividends, realized and unrealized gains and losses.

Fair Value Measurements

Current accounting standards have established a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used in valuation techniques. The hierarchy only prioritizes the inputs, not the valuation techniques themselves. The inputs used in a given valuation may fall in different levels of the fair value hierarchy. Observable inputs are inputs that market participants operating within the same marketplace as the Organization would use in pricing the Organization's asset or liability based on independently derived and observable market data. Unobservable inputs are inputs that cannot be sourced from a broad active market in which assets or liabilities identical or similar to those of the Organization are traded. The Organization estimates the price of any assets for which there are only unobservable inputs by using assumptions that market participants that have investments in the same or similar assets would use as determined by the money managers for each investment based on best information available in the circumstances. The input hierarchy is broken down into three levels based on the degree to which the exit price is independently observable or determinable as follows:

Level 1

Valuation based on quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities. Since valuations are based on quoted prices that are readily and regularly available in an active market, valuation of these products does not entail a significant degree of judgment.

Level 2

Valuation based on quoted market prices of investments that are not actively traded or for which certain significant inputs are not observable, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3

Valuation based on inputs that are unobservable and reflect management's best estimate of what market participants would use as fair value.

Bruce T. Halle Assistance Fund

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2013 and 2012

Contributions

The Organization records contributions as revenue when the promise to give is made. Contributions are classified as either unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support. All contributions are considered to be available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by the donor. Restricted gifts and grants, received and utilized in the current year, are reflected in the statement of activities in the unrestricted class of net assets. In general, almost all contributions are designated as unrestricted, however, some donations have been raised by outside parties to be donated to specific employees and their families, which the Organization honors. These funds are classified as temporarily restricted until donated to the designated individuals.

Contributed Services

There were no services contributed to the Organization during the year ended December 31, 2013. An immaterial amount is reflected in the financial statements for donated services to the Organization from an outside party during the year ended December 31, 2012. The Organization receives donated services requiring general and specific expertise from DT to administer and manage the Organization. Many other individuals also volunteer their time and perform a variety of tasks that assist the Organization and to raise funds.

Income Taxes

The Organization is a not-for-profit organization that is exempt from Federal, state and local income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and therefore, has made no provision for income taxes in the accompanying financial statements. In addition, the Organization has been determined by the Internal Revenue Service to be a "public charity" within the meaning of Section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) of the Internal Revenue Code. There was no unrelated business income for the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012. The Organization's Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, for the years ending 2013 and 2012 are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service, generally for three years after the return is filed.

Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes

The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under that guidance, the Organization may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the position. The Organization does not believe there are any material uncertain tax positions and, accordingly, it will not recognize any liability for unrecognized tax benefits. The Organization has filed for and received income tax exemptions in the jurisdictions where it is required to do so. Additionally, the Organization has filed Internal Revenue Service Form 990 tax returns, as required, and all other applicable returns in jurisdictions when it is required. For the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012, there were no interest or penalties recorded or included in the statements of activities. With few exceptions, the Fund is no longer subject to tax exemptions by tax authorities for the years before 2011.

Bruce T. Halle Assistance Fund

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2013 and 2012

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments which potentially subject the Organization to concentration of credit risk consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents and investments. All of the Company's non-interest bearing cash balances were fully insured at December 31, 2012 due to a temporary federal program in effect from December 31, 2010 through December 31, 2012. Under the program, there was no limit to the amount of insurance for eligible accounts. Beginning in 2013, insurance coverage reverted to $250,000 per depositor at each financial institution. At December 31, 2013 the Company had cash and short term investments in excess of this insured limit. The Organization's investments totaling $412,099 and $418,342 respectively, as of December 31, 2013 and 2012 are held in a mutual fund that is not covered by insurance, therefore, all investments are subject to credit risk.

3. Investments and Fair Value Measurements

The Organization's investment balance as of December 31, 2013 and 2012 consists of amounts held in a bond mutual fund, which is carried at its aggregate fair market value that is determined by quoted market prices. This investment can be liquidated at any time. The valuation is based on Level 1 inputs within the hierarchy used in measuring fair value. The Organization did not have investments valued using Level 2 or Level 3 inputs as of December 31, 2013 and 2012. In addition, there were no transfers between levels during the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012.

4. Related Party Transactions

The Board and Committee members are active employees within DT, and the primary recipients of the funds are DT employees and family members. Volunteers and donors are also primarily employees, families and retirees of DT.

The Organization did not receive any donated services that would qualify as contributions during the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012. In addition, during the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012, DT employees provided various administrative services that do not qualify as contributions.

5. Investment (Loss) Income

Investment loss of $6,243 for the year ended December 31, 2013 consisted of re-invested dividends in the amount of $12,933 which was offset by unrealized losses in the amount of $19,176. Investment income for the year ended December 31, 2012 consisted of re-invested dividends and unrealized gains in the amount of $11,685 and $16,170, respectively. All investment income or loss was considered unrestricted for the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012.

6. Temporarily Restricted Net Assets and Net Assets Released from Restriction

The Organization did not hold any temporarily restricted net assets during the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012.

Bruce T. Halle Assistance Fund

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2013 and 2012

7. Unrestricted Contributions

Total unrestricted contributions totaled $1,065,657 and $937,057 for the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively. These funds were collected from various fundraising events sponsored by outside organizations and/or groups of employees that donated net proceeds, DT employee payroll deductions, website donations, and general public support.

8. Subsequent Events

The Organization's management has evaluated the possibility of subsequent events existing in the Organization's financial statements through June 13, 2014, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. There were no subsequent events that require adjustments to, or disclosures in, the financial statements.
